Federal Aid Sought For Lisbon Quiz

Prosecutor Waits State Evidence On Numbers Printers

County Prosecutor G. William Brokaw today was awaiting additional evidence from Ohio Attorney General Mark McElroy for preparation of indictments against owners of the Lisbon Salesbook Co., where large quantities of numbers books were seized in a raid Wednesday.

McElroy was slated to confer with U.S. Attorney General Robert Kennedy for investigation of out-of-state customers of the Lisbon firm, which reportedly did a $150,000 a year business supplying the "bug books" to numbers racketeers.

McElroy and two aides, along with Prosecutor Brokaw and Lisbon Police Chief Dalton Pike, yesterday morning raided the W. Maple St. company where thousands of the books along with printing equipment were confiscated.

Martin and Isadore Sufrin of Pittsburgh, owners of the firm which McElroy termed the third largest numbers racket supplier in the country, face fines of up to $1,000 and jail terms of 1-3 years under the state's new anti-gambling measures.

The attorney general said the federal government would be asked to investigate the firm's customers in Eastern states and to "establish a link between federal and Ohio authorities in our common fight against gambling."

Brokaw said today indictments against the firm will be prepared when McElroy supplies him with needed information in connection with the criminal charges. The September Grand Jury is to convene Tuesday.

Brokaw said he needs official proof of the ownership of the firm, which the state officials can obtain from corporation records at Columbus. He said the first move is up to McElroy.

The prosecutor stated, "I am not seeking publicity in this case." He said he was not notified of the intended raid until midmorning, and then only at the insistence of Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard, who issued a search warrant to McElroy only minutes before the raid at 10:30.

Brokaw said he had no evidence of illegal activities at the firm, although he said it was understood throughout town that numbers slips had been printed. He pointed out that such an operation was legal up to Friday when the new law went into effect.

Two men and four women were working at the firm when John Gleason, assistant attorney general, entered the door and called out, "Everybody stand still; this is a raid." No one was arrested, but the names of all were taken.

Martin Sufrin yesterday declared the firm was a legitimate manufacturer of sales books for department stores and confectionery stores across the nation.

"Our firm has legal opinions concerning the manufacture of the books, and we plan to file suit against McElroy," he stated.

The numbers books are 2-x-6-inch pads of 50 numbered sheets in triplicate with two carbon papers in the bottom.

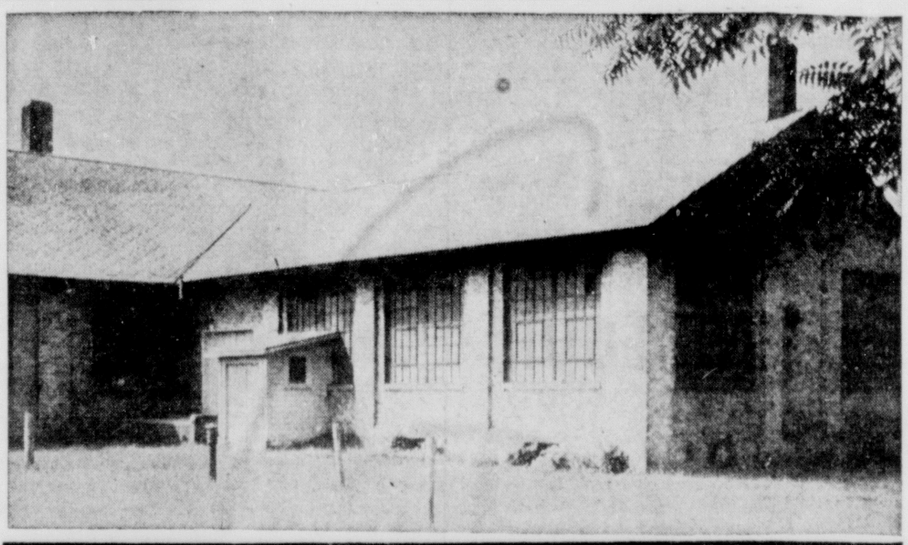

The sheets have red ruled spaces for the date at the top with a blank rectangle which Gleason said is used to mark the number bet by the player. The bottom of the sheets are also red ruled and have a five-digit number and a space for "total sales."

The player gets the top sheet, the numbers' writer the second and the numbers' house the bottom sheet, Gleason explained.

Asked how proof could be established that these slips were used for numbers, Prosecutor Brokaw said that expert witnesses would be able to identify them as "bug" slips.

McElroy credited Gleason with developing the information which led to the raid, saying Gleason learned of the operations of the firm about 18 months ago while investigating George Markos,

Judge Hits Lack Of Enforcement

A Wellsville tavern operator was acquitted of selling intoxicants to a minor at a hearing Wednesday in Juvenile Court but the judge lashed at lack of enforcement in the East Liverpool and Wellsville areas by the State Liquor Department and called on the governor to do something about it.

Judge Louis Tobin added he believes the youth was sold drinks.

Bennie Corbisello, operator of the Bolera Cafe on Main St., was found not guilty of contributing to the boy's delinquency after the state failed to prove the youth had bought liquor at the spot.

FIFTEEN witnesses took the stand with Asst. Prosecutor Joseph Barronzzi handling the state's case and the law firm of Bettis, Coe & Heagley defending Corbisello.

In finding Corbisello not guilty, Judge Tobin said:

"In reviewing the evidence in this case, the court is convinced of several things. First, the court is convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the young man in question, Kenneth Thomas, as well as other boys, have been sold intoxicating liquors in the Bolero Cafe, and the court wishes to censure the Department of Liquor Control, since it was upon their request that this hearing was continued so that they could be here. No one from the Liquor Control Board appeared or contacted this court, stating they would not appear.

"SECOND, IT is the opinion of this court, based upon the testimony in this case, that there has been a lack of enforcement in the Wellsville and East Liverpool areas.

"The court, therefore, intends to send a copy of this opinion to the Governor of the state of Ohio, and does hereby request that he instruct the Department of Liquor Control for a strict enforcement of the laws at it relates to minors, against all cafes and particularly against the Bolero Cafe.

"The court finds from the evidence there is practically no pretense made in behalf of the department or on behalf of the innkeepers mentioned here and par-

Chester Gets Stiff Control Of Refuse

Council Also Enacts One-Way Traffic On 2 Street Areas

Final approval was given by Chester Council Wednesday night to stricter regulations on disposal of trash and garbage and for one-way traffic flow on two streets.

The new street regulation provides for northbound traffic only on 1st St. between Indiana and Pennsylvania Aves. and 2nd St. between Montana Ave. and Church Alley.

A previously approved stipulation providing for westbound traffic only on Orion Ave. for a short distance near Pyramus St. was revoked.

Councilman W. F. Bishop said residents of the area had asked him to request Council to allow two-way traffic on Orion Ave.

The new trash and garbage disposal regulation provides that only the authorized private hauler, engaged by Council, can collect inside the city limits, and prohibits unsanitary accumulation of garbage or disposal on streets or other areas. It forbids burning of trash without the permission of police or firemen.

Council instructed City Clerk Roy Cashdollar to request the Monongehela Power Co. to move a street light at Phaeton Ave. Ext. and W. Carolina Ave. Ext. to a site in front of the homes of Donald Thiess and Joseph Judy a short distance away. The move would provide light for more homes, it was reported.

At the request of Councilman Donald Hissam, Council authorized the Chester fire department to utilize 4th St. between Caro-

Stratton Dam Dedication Will Be Held On Sept. 28

Dedication of the $40 million Stratton dam and locks will be held Thursday, Sept. 28, with the dedicatory address being given by Secretary of the Army Elvis J. Stahr Jr.

Details of the program were announced today by Emerson V. Wood, executive manager of the Steubenville Chamber of Commerce which is sponsoring the program. Cooperating in the program are the Pittsburgh District Army Corps of Engineers and the Pittsburgh Coal Exchange.

The program will begin at noon with a luncheon at the Masonic Temple in Steubenville and will be followed by a parade of boats from Steubenville to Stratton when Stahr will give the principal address at 3:30 p. m.

The Dravo Corp. of Pittsburgh, general contractor for the new dam, pulled the last section of cofferdam last week, signaling completion of the project which has been underway for over two years.

Operation of the new dam is the first completed step in the 20-year program of the Corps of Engineers to reconstruct and modernize the entire Ohio River navigation system.

Located in the heart of the upper Ohio River Valley with its varied industrial concentration, the new dam has replaced obsolete structures at Dams 7, 8, and 9 which formerly were located at Midland, Newell and New Cumberland.

It will speed river traffic through this section, cutting as much as four hours from the travel time of the average tow.

Knox Township Plans Fire Protection Levy

Knox Township trustees have indicated to the County Election Board they plan to submit a resolution asking a vote on a new current expense levy at the Nov. 7 general election to provide funds for fire protection.

Gun Victim Reported Improved At Hospital

The first improvement in the condition of Harry (Bud) Grim, 30, of Wellsville, shot while in an auto near Knoxville Aug. 27, has been reported by City Hospital.

Grim, who had been in "critical" condition for days after the shooting, is now in "fair" condition, hospital authorities said. Robert Vance, 23, of Toronto R.D. is being held in Jefferson County Jail at Steubenville in connection with the wounding of Grim.

Chester Park Lot Eyed For Post Office

Sale of a portion of the Chester City Park for use as a site of a new post office was being considered today by the Park Commission following presentation of the proposal at a meeting Wednesday night.

A Post Office Department representative discussed with the commission the sale of a 100-x-160-foot section of the park along 5th St. for a building site. An offer of $10,000 was made for the property.

The commission agreed to study the proposal and was to confer with Atty. James Jordan, who drew up the exchange of deed for the park to the city.

Harold Dickey, chairman of the commission, said the group wants to examine all the legal points in such transaction and to determine public opinion on the proposal.

The Post Office Department has been interested for some time in providing new facilities in Chester.

The present post office is located on Carolina Ave. at 5th St. in the National Church Supply Co. building.

Tentative plans would call for erection of an 80-x-42-foot building to be leased by the Post Office Department.

A number of other sites have been under consideration, but the park area was given a selection priority because of its accessibility to the center of the city.

Dickey said should a building be erected at the park, the football field would be re-located.

Ford's Next In Line For UAW Talks

Reuther Says He'll Work Out Details Of GM Pact First

DETROIT (AP) — Walter P. Reuther will go calling on the Ford Motor Co. as soon as he settles on the details of the United Auto Workers' agreement with General Motors.

"Ford is the next door I will knock on," the UAW president said late Wednesday after recessing his talks with GM until today.

Reuther indicated he was confident of making a final settlement with GM that will set the pattern for Ford and Chrysler. He said there is no pressure now in the GM negotiations because, "There is general agreement in all important areas" of a national economic settlement on wages and extra benefits.

GM Vice President Louis G. Seaton agreed the company and union were in essential agreement in the national economic area.

The GM-UAW negotiations are continuing under a strike truce. A shutdown of GM plants was averted Wednesday by extending the deadline to 10 a.m. Monday. The union's contract with Ford and Chrysler were extended to next Wednesday midnight.

Nearly all of GM's 325,000 hourly workers stayed on the job. But there was a rash of wildcat strikes at seven GM plants. Reuther predicted operations at the company's 129 plants will be normal and workers will be "elated when they learn the details of the economic package."

Reuther told newsmen that he was "not free to discuss the details" of the union's agreement with GM on broad economic issues.

U.S. Considers Neutrals' Plea For Peace Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration was expected today to give a sympathetic response to an appeal from 25 neutral nations for U.S.-Soviet negotiations to save the world from "the horror of nuclear war."

But officials here said the aggressive Soviet attitude on critical Berlin issues—dramatized by Soviet persistence in exploding nuclear weapons test devices in the atmosphere—discourages hope that negotiations under present conditions can make much progress.

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission announced Wednesday night that the Soviet Union had exploded early Wednesday, Washington time, its fourth nuclear test device since last Friday. Evidence picked up by U.S. monitors put the site of the blast as being east of Stalingrad. The AEC said it was about 1,600 miles west of the area of Semipalatinsk in which the three previous explosions occurred.

The force was described by the AEC as being in the low to intermediate range, which means it was far below the 100-million-ton superbomb which Soviet Premier Khrushchev has threatened to build.

Before the AEC made its announcement on the fourth Soviet blast, Secretary of Welfare Abraham Ribicoff reported radioactive fallout from the new Soviet tests had been detected in Alaska. He said analysis showed radiation levels at 35 times the average daily levels for August. Dr. Luther L. Terry, surgeon general of the health service, said there was no immediate health danger from the fallout.

Congressional leaders said the prevailing opinion within the Kennedy administration is that the new Soviet tests are aimed at developing antimissile missiles. And they predicted the United States will fire an underground nuclear blast within two weeks to test a small battlefield warhead and the effectiveness of new detection equipment.

New Orleans Set For School Test

By The Associated Press

The gradual, orderly spread of public school integration in the South this year reached a crucial phase at New Orleans today while there were rumblings of discontent at Chicago and New Rochelle, N.Y.

The increase in the number of Negroes enrolled with white pupils in the South was relatively small but was considered significant because such large cities as Dallas, Tex., and Atlanta, Ga., were included.

President Kennedy said in Washington that peaceful integration was a "dramatic demonstration of U.S. progress in improving the position of American Negroes."

He congratulated Little Rock and Dallas and communities in Arkansas, Texas, Florida, Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee for admitting Negroes to previously white schools without incident. Earlier he praised Atlanta for its quiet integration of four high schools.

New Orleans police erected barricades a block away around the six schools scheduled for integration. The entire police force was placed on a 12-hour day, some 120 U.S. deputy marshals were quartered at Camp LeRoy Johnson ready to assist if needed, and the FBI kept a watchful eye on the situation.

Only two of the New Orleans schools—McDonogh 19 and William Frantz—planned to admit Negro pupils immediately. The New Orleans Parish School Board said less than 10 Negro first graders would enter the other four schools before Sept. 15. The actual date of entry was not announced.

Eighteen Negro children attended previously white elementary schools in Dallas Wednesday, attracting little attention. Police found traffic control their sole duty at what had been the nation's largest segregated school system.

'Carla' Expected To Hit Yucatan, Western Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)— Hurricane Carla crept toward the Gulf of Mexico today as if unable to decide which way to head—Mexico to the northwestward or the U.S. Gulf Coast to the north and east.

Forecasters at the U.S. Weather Bureau in Miami said Carla was expected to brush both northeast Yucatan and extreme western Cuba in entering the Yucatan Channel that leads into the Gulf.

The storm, packing winds up to 75 miles per hour over a small area near the center, was still in the process of developing nearing the channel on a poky 8 m.p.h. northwest to north-northwest course.

Weathermen expected slow intensification, with course and speed maintained, as Carla entered the southeastern Gulf of Mexico.

The Caribbean-born hurricane was located at 5 a.m. 50 miles northeast of Cozumel Island, off the Yucatan Peninsula's northeast tip, 110 miles southwest of Cuba's western tip and 500 miles southwest of Miami.

Gale force winds ranged 250 miles northeast and 100 miles southeast of the storm's center. Tides which may rise to five to seven feet, heavy rains and dangerous winds of gale to possibly hurricane force were anticipated for the northeast tip of Yucatan and extreme western Cuba during Carla's passage through the channel.

Units Could Face Call In Few Weeks

Can Free Regular Army Divisions For Overseas Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army appeared today to be wheeling four National Guard infantry and armored divisions into position to free regular Army divisions for movement overseas, if the Berlin crisis becomes acute.

The four Guard divisions — the 26th Infantry of Massachusetts, the 28th Infantry of Pennsylvania, the 32nd Infantry of Wisconsin and the 49th Armored of Texas—Wednesday were put on notice that they face possible calls to federal duty. Such a call could come in a matter of weeks.

Along with 475 lesser Guard and Reserve units in 46 states and the District of Columbia these divisions were given a top priority label by the Army.

"They will begin an intensified training program immediately in order to increase their combat readiness," the Army said.

The divisions and the individual units, combat and support types, will be reinforced from the ready reserve pool to bring them to near full strength.

Total strength of these formations now stands at about 86,000. Some 52,000 ready reservists will be assigned or attached to them to fill out their ranks.

Orders to put these measures into effect went out Wednesday and Army officials estimated the four divisions could be brought close to full strength in about 15

3-State Highway Meeting Planned For Steubenville

State Highway Department officials from Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania will meet Sept. 20 at Steubenville with civic leaders from a six-county Ohio Valley area to discuss current plans for north-south and east-west throughway improvements.

Arranged by the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council, the conference will follow a noon luncheon at the Steubenville Country Club. First plans for the session were announced today by Atty. Francis H. Lang, chairman of the UOVDC transportation committee.

"The three-state meeting has been arranged so our council can keep informed about highway improvements which we believe will have great influence on economic and community growth within this region," Atty. Lang said. "We also hope to learn how we can assist the highway departments in implementing their plans."

Sixty are expected from the UOVDC area, which covers Columbiana, Belmont, Harrison and Jefferson Counties in Ohio and Hancock and Brooke Counties in West Virginia.

The highway officials invited to the conference will be on the division level. For instance, William McKenna, head of the Division 11 office at New Philadelphia, will be the Ohio spokesman.

Discussions will center around advance plans and construction progress on east-west Routes 30, 22, 43 and 70 — old U.S. 40. The state officials also will discuss north-south routes 21, 7 and the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway between East Liverpool and Ashtabula. Route 2 in West Virginia and the Erie to West Virginia Freeway in Pennsylvania also will be on the agenda.

It will be the second such regional meeting on highways sponsored by the UOVDC. In June 1960, the civic leaders conferred at Weirton with highway department heads from each of the three states.

Wife Of Policeman Employed At Firm

LISBON — Among employes at the Lisbon Salesbook Co. when it was raided Wednesday as a numbers book printing operation was Mrs. Sadie Patterson, 123 E. Pine St., wife of assistant Police Chief Roy Patterson.

Mrs. Patterson, married only recently to the officer, had been laid off by the firm for a while, but was recalled and was one of six workers at the plant yesterday.

Evidence uncovered by Gleason led to a raid on an Appliance supplier of gambling equipment which in turn was supplied by the Lisbon firm McElroy said.

Nothing could be done then because of lax state laws against manufacturer of gambling equipment, he said.

Gleason and Robert Blackburn of Columbiana, special investigator, kept the Lisbon firm under surveillance for six weeks prior to yesterday's raid.

days. Infantry divisions total 13,700 men and armored divisions 14,600 men when all spaces are filled.

Army officers shied away from calling Wednesday's action an alert.

When asked if the four divisions will be called into active service, one spokesman said "it depends on the world situation."

The Army now is building three regular Army training divisions into combat shape. That would give the United States six Army and two Marine divisions, now based inside the country, for movement abroad if needed to bolster the Western defense line in Europe.

Five U.S. infantry and armored divisions now are arrayed in West Germany and a small force of 6,500 is in Berlin.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is reported to have asked the Army if it could be in position to send six divisions abroad by mid-November.

If a decision is made to reinforce the troops facing the Soviets in the critical weeks ahead, the Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Texas Guard divisions would replace regular division in the strategic reserve within the continental United States.

There they would receive more rigorous training and would be available for use on the European front, if necessary, or to cope with other troubles which might break out elsewhere.

Call-up of the four Guard divisions would increase U.S. ground strength to 18 Army divisions, plus three Marine.

A Challenge On The Local Level

Atty. Gen. Mark W. McElroy has lost little time in demonstrating to Columbiana County residents the powerful weapon that enforcement agencies now possess in the new Ohio anti-gambling laws.

He quoted the law in preparing to follow up on Wednesday's raid on a Lisbon firm which he says is a large producer of numbers slips.

In an editorial on Sept. 1, The Review commented as follows in referring to the tough new laws:

". . .There will be no excuse for the existence of organized gambling in Ohio. Under the new statutes there will be no such thing as innocent participation in commercial games of chance.

"If it exists, it will be because someone is falling down on the job, either deliberately or unwittingly.

"If organized gambling continues anywhere in Ohio, it will signify general disinterest in sound community life.

"The legislature has provided the weapons for waging war against organized crime. But the mere existence of weapons does not guarantee victory. That can be had only by diligent use of the weapons."

Atty. Gen. McElroy and his staff have sounded a clearcut challenge with Wednesday's raid. It is now up to enforcement agencies in individual communities to follow through with a continuous war against gambling.

With the element of surprise often necessary for the best results, raids by state agencies fit into the over-all picture. Even more desirable, however, are raids at the local level.

Honest community government can get no greater boost than that which comes from the knowledge that local enforcement agencies are ever on the alert against gambling and other undesirable operations.

Beware Of The Fallout

If we were laboratory mice at Oak Ridge, resumption of nuclear testing wouldn't bother us. We'd be cheering President Kennedy's decision to keep abreast of the Russians.

A geneticist working for the Atomic Energy Commission says we can't be mutated nearly as much as the AEC previously had estimated we can be. His name is William L. Russell, and opinions like his are the stuff of red-hot human controversy.

They are part of the fallout in a propaganda explosion that has us groggy. We don't feel like cheering.

Right now, of course, the presence of radioactive particles in the air after nuclear explosions is spoken of officially as almost a blessing because the United States itself is going to resume nuclear testing.

For the last few days, however, radioactive particles from resumption of Russian testing had been anything but an official blessing, because the U.S. government was leading a worldwide shriek of indignation about it. This sort of thing needs to be understood for what it is—propaganda.

FALLOUT in the propaganda war is more dangerous at this moment than fallout from nuclear testing is likely to be.

The Soviet Union resumed nuclear testing, it said, because it knew the United States was getting ready to resume nuclear testing. This, of course, was denied.

The United States actually was getting ready to resume nuclear testing, though, because it now says it will be ready to run the first tests before the end of this month in laboratories and underground tunnels, which take years to prepare.

Sooner or later, either the United States or the Soviet Union would resume nuclear testing; that was certain. The Soviet Union, which may never have stopped underground testing, finally made the break on above-ground testing, to the relief of all interested parties in the United States.

The lid is off. Russia, which refused to ban testing, then led the squawk against it in the last decade, now is testing again at a stepped-up pace.

Everybody can start atomic testing now.

The French can blast off. So can the Israelis. And the Red Chinese. One day, the clever Japanese will make the biggest bang for the least money. The West Germans will get into the act by virtue of their reputation as the world's most ingenious designers. Italy will have a nuclear bomb. Some of the new countries in Africa will figure out a way to get one.

NUCLEAR BLASTING will become so popular that even the British will get back into the swim. And by that time it won't even be safe for a mouse at Oak Ridge under the care of geneticist Russell, who says radioactive mutations aren't as serious as they first were believed to be.

A ban on nuclear blasting then would be as meaningful as a ban on polluting public waterways—and as hard to enforce. But at this instant in history, no one is ready for even the pretense of a ban. There is too much yet to be known about nuclear fission and fusion.

There is, moreover, the unknowable condition of all the nuclear weapons already in existence—whether or not they would go off with the cataclysmic bang built into them. When World War II began, torpedoes that had been in cold storage were sent to sea for submarine warfare and hundreds had lost their bang when it was time to fire them.

THE UNITED STATES hardly could wait for the Soviet Union to resume nuclear testing. It was itching to do the same thing. What triggered the Russian decision is unknown, but the United States is thankful for it.

Naturally, the worriers, pacifists, Cloud-Niners and Communist sympathizers deplore the resumption by this country, and it's going to be hard on generations of unborn mice. But the mice won't know about it, unless it kills them, and then they won't know what killed them, which puts them 2 up on the human race.

Not only could all of us be killed, but we could die a thousand deaths while waiting for the fallout from both nuclear and propaganda blasting. One's as bad as the other.

The nuclear fallout can cause mutations of the body and the propaganda fallout can cause mutations of the intellect. And of the two, mutations of the intellect may do us in first.

Park Partnership

Chester's City Park and its community building and other facilities have been the result of the hard work and generosity of a varied group of individuals and civic organizations.

Since 1954 when the 12-acre tract was obtained by the volunteer firemen and later turned over to the community, a considerable amount of time and energy has been spent on clearing the land, providing a football field and lights, erecting the community building and completing a number of other projects.

Besides actual labor volunteered or provided at reduced rates, residents and businessmen have contributed money through the quarterly donation plan or other grants.

Tonight begins a three-day bazaar to obtain more money to complete the community building and other park projects.

Chester residents and others who are interested in the park or those who simply like a summer night's entertainment replete with concessions and music should visit the bazaar.

It will be a good way to cool off for a good cause, while becoming a partner in an improved park.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

New auto models are out and show many improvements. If this could be said of drivers, it would be wonderful.

Trend to small cars continues. This is also true of small down payments. There are few radical changes, except that some trunk compartments are built to take fewer "dents in depth" from car behind.

Rear - end collisions clearly show safety belts are needed on the baggage but nothing has been done about this in 1962 cars.

Motors are smaller, the idea being to reduce gas consumption between accidents. There are many new gadgets but Detroit is yet to provide a push-button Red Cross kit on dash.

No designer has come out with a "dispenser" type fender container which will make a new fender automatically fall into place when the old one has become dull or ripped off.

In new models, bumpers are placed further inside the car body because of conclusion they don't give any protection in modern high-speed traffic. This is the year of "Auto That Fits the Garage" and in only a few models are wedges, crowbars and carpentry tools necessary to get the flivver under cover.

Many models give more mileage, some 40 miles per gallon. They are popular, due to fact few people any longer believe economy at a pumping station means a loss of prestige.

Long-range lubrication is newest feature of 1962 cars, with some guaranteed to run 30,000 miles without lubrication. This means little to women drivers. They seldom think about greasing the car anyhow but the men think it a good idea.

Speedometers remain about the same, as they are little used except by elderly drivers. Brakes, despite rumors, are not OPTIONAL, the industry refusing to cater to the millions of drivers who never use them.

The trend to push-button windows continues but the question, "What do I do to close one in rain or open one on a hot day when the buttons don't work?" remains unanswered except in a way that encourages profanity at service stations.

Best news is that "fin" changes are few, as the craze to make an auto look like a jet plane has died down. Drivers get the car into the air just as easy without them.

"BETTER RED THAN DEAD!" is the slogan being spread by Commies all over the world, not without the support of some safety-first addicts. But the free world could come up with some more inspiring ones, as for instance, "Better pallbearers than concentration-camp sharers," "Better faith abounding than table pounding," "Better death as a free man than life as a bended-knee man" and "Better hell-fire than barbed wire." Others could include:

Better a green grave than Moscow's slave.

Better "For freedom he dies" than "Under hobnailed boots he lies."

Lines revised after summer on crowded beaches:

Mother, may I go in to swim?
If you're nuts enough, my daughter;
Grab yourself a hickory limb
And fight your way to the water!

Farther And Farther Up The River

Stevenson Angers Union Chiefs

By Victor Riesel

Adlai Stevenson has himself a battalion of new opponents. He ought not to take them lightly. They are influential—for they are national labor leaders. They would like to drive him from the inner circles of the White House and end his advisory relationship with John Kennedy or have him named Abassador to the Faroe Islands where the fog is always thickest.

Victor Riesel

They blame him and the new young men in his coterie for weakening their influence with the White House on international matters.

For the moment, these national union chiefs are angry older men because Ambassador Stevenson vetoed the appointment of a labor chief to the United Nations delegation to the make-or-break General Assembly session opening soon.

Word is that President Kennedy flatly promised AFL-CIO President George Meany that he would appoint him to the U.N.

WHEN STEVENSON heard of this, the ambassador told Mr. Kennedy that he did not want Meany. It is fact that there are highly placed labor leaders who believe that Stevenson sought Walter Reuther.

However, I cannot corroborate this first hand. But it is fact that Stevenson told the President that he desired professionals in the diplomatic field.

And it is fact that John Kennedy, feeling he could not override his own ambassador, later explained his failure to name Meany by saying: "What can I do with Stevenson, he kept insisting he wanted technicians."

What angers the union men is the absence of a labor leader on the U.N. delegation appointed by a Democratic president they helped elect.

They are saying quite bitterly they did better with Dwight Eisenhower on this front.

Under the Republicans Mr. Meany served twice at the U.N., and AFL-CIO Vice President George Harrison of the railway clerks, had one such term. And they don't say this gently either.

Nor does this antagonism to Stevenson end at the U.N. Deep in labor's sanctums, it is being said that the "Adlai bloc" has embarrassed the U.S. in Latin America.

THEY STILL BLAME Mr. Stevenson for rushing to Washington and preventing that second U.S. air strike against Castro's airports and army "that night" just as the Fidelista militia were beginning to desert to the invaders.

And they excoriate the "Adlai bloc" for some unreported events which occurred at the inter-American conference at Punta del Este, Uruguay.

First the labor men say that the Stevenson group fought the appointment of labor members to the Alliance for Progress delegation. Then they blame his group for the White House policy which kept the U.S. delegation sitting quietly during three days of insults to Mr. Kennedy and our country.

At one point, for example, Cuban sharp-tongued hatchet man "Che" Guevara virtually called Mr. Kennedy a crook.

This came when "Che" used the snide Spanish phrase "A confesion de parte, releve de prueba," while referring to JFK. This means "when a crime is being confessed, there is no need to present evidence."

-:-

THE U.S. LABOR MEN, who have been working with the Latinos for years, were aghast. They know that this is the type of insult to a President and land which no Latin American would tolerate.

All eyes turned to the U.S. delegation. Everybody expected a walkout or retort. But it was obvious that our delegation was not going to irritate the Cubans. The Latinos felt we had deserted honor and had lost face.

Later, when the final declaration was being wrought, the leader of the Peruvian delegation proposed a simple expression of loyalty to the system of free and regular elections. He wanted this as a condition for membership in the Alliance for Progress.

FINALLY, there was to be a reference to labor. The words "free democratic labor" were struck from the final declaration, mostly at the insistence of the pro-Castro block. The U.S. delegation just let it go by. They did not fight for it.

The labor men reported this back to their national headquarters in Washington — where this was quietly called appeasement.

The responsibility is being heaped squarely on Adlai Stevenson's influence.

All is quiet on this front for the moment. But this feud will be a loud one shortly. If not in public, then inside the White House.

Letters To The Editor

The other day at 4 o'clock in the morning. I was awakened by loud and boisterous talking.

Being surrounded by a rather astounding number of taverns, this was not unusual for our neighborhood. Six youths about 15 to 16 years of age were assembled across the street from my home. They were discussing current world problems very emphatically at 4 in the morning.

Surprising? No, not at all, very commonplace, and we accept it as a sign of the times. Is it good for our youth to have such freedom? Don't their parents care where their children are? Should we wonder then why we have terrible auto accidents and other undesirable incidents?

Control must start in the home. The parent or head of the household must exercise authority. A teen-ager does not resent authority when it is applied in the right way.

We wonder how many parents have urged their boys to join the Boy Scouts? This is a program where a boy learns teamwork. He becomes self-confident. He explores the realm of adventure and can find his vocation for life in his study of the different merit badges that the program offers.

To make America strong, we must build, we must serve and we will achieve. Decide now, Americans, which will it be: Must we build bigger prisons or bigger and better youth activities?

America's strength lies in its people. How true these words are. And a great many of America's people are of the ages 8 to 18. These are the formative years.

What a boy learns and comes in contact with may well determine the type of adult he will turn out to be. Character building and physical fitness are vitally needed.

Scouting offers such a worthwhile program. Today's youngsters are in our hands but a short time. What they learn is entirely up to their leaders. Many leaders are needed now as our programs continues to grow. Would you like to help? Invest in America's future. Build now, serve now and we will certainly achieve.

ROBERT GRAY

Chester

Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never harm me.

True this is a childish statement, but it makes a lot of sense even in adult life. Another statement I recall from my childhood was "If the shoe fits, put it on and wear it, even if it pinches a little."

If we pinch a pig in the right spot, he will squeal. This goes too for any dumb animal. And, of course, it's true even a man will squeal if we pinch him in the right spot.

It is only common sense that we all must endure a few pinches as we go through life. But the question is, Can we be adult enough to not squeal like a pig when we are caught in a squeeze and the pinch begins to hit home? . . .

Editor's Note — With the feeling that both sides have been given an opportunity to express their views, we are marking the Headley-Mangano case closed. It is our opinion that nothing would be gained from a further discussion of the matter in the Letters To The Editor column.

I am happy to know that the letter to the editor written by Mrs. Delores. Headley (my wife) brought so much joy to certain readers. It's always a little easier to bear your troubles if you know it has benefitted someone. Strange as it may sound, my wife's letter had a different effect on different people. She received many complimentary letters and personal visits and phone calls. But as they say, what medicine will cure one will kill another. . . .

I still stand fast that our home is our castle in spite of disgreements expressed in another letter to The Review. However, I do agree with the author of the letter on one point. If we have nothing spiritual, or of human value inside our homes, they then become an empty shell. It takes much more than money to make happiness or to fill a house full of joy.

WILLIAM E. HEADLEY
R. D. 1, Wellsville

In answer to the letter in Monday's Review: I don't know of anyone in East Liverpool and the district whose name has been in the court news more than that of Mangano.

Therefore, I don't think William Mangano should say anything about anyone else.

The 'Shadow Cabinet'

By David Lawrence

U.S. Parties Might Study British Idea

It seems strange, after studying at first hand the way they prepare for a changeover in government in Britain, to come back to America and read dispatches from California reporting that the big story in politics there is whether former Vice President Nixon should run for governor of the state next year.

David Lawrence

What seems even stranger are the oft-repeated comments in political circles that New York's governor—Nelson Rockefeller — will try to become the Republican presidential candidate in 1964.

According to the British system, neither Mr. Nixon nor Mr. Rockefeller would get the slightest consideration for the party's nomination unless they were members of the national legislative body in positions of leadership.

What's more, cabinet secretaries would not be appointed to head the big departments of government unless they, too, were members of Parliament.

Talking at length with one of the leading members of Britain's Labor party—which at present is known as the "opposition"—this writer was able to get a penetrating comparison of the American and British systems.

The member interviewed not only makes frequent trips to America and is well acquainted with many members of our Congress but he is likely to have an important post in the national government if the Conservative party is defeated at the polls in the next election.

Basically, as analyzed for this correspondent, neither of the two systems is as effective as it ought to be, but each has certain advantages over the other.

In Britain the members of an opposition party in Parliament do not have the advantage of representation as minority members of legislative committees and thus do not have direct access to information about the operations of the executive branch as is the case in America.

On the other hand, in London they have set up what is called a "shadow cabinet." It maintains an intimate personal relationship with the cabinet of the other party, and there is a custom that information on important matters should be shared informally. It's a kind of reciprocal courtesy on a personal basis.

Again and again the party in power has offered to parallel the so-called "bipartisan" conferences held in the United States between the chief executive and members of the opposite party in Congress.

THIS INFORMALITY has been consistently refused, the theory being that it would impose a certain responsibility on the opposition to keep silent when it might be appropriate in the public interest to speak out.

In its own way and through its personal contacts, therefore, the "shadow cabinet" collects its information. It sets up a member or two for each big department with a staff of assistant secretaries. The arrangement is such that at any moment the "shadow cabinet" can become the real cabinet, and not a day's time is lost in the operations of the national government when there is a changeover.

All this, incidentally, is relatively new, having been started just after World War I, and the system is being constantly improved.

In America, on the other hand, despite all the sincere and earnest efforts at cooperation made between an outgoing and incoming administration, as was the case last autumn, the opportunity to learn in three months about the actual operation of the government is scant.

A "shadow cabinet" is in training in Britain for three years or more, and many of its members have previously served in the national government.

The opposition party itself in England selects the "shadow cabinet." The record of each man is checked by the party leaders, and often a member of the "shadow cabinet" may train first for one post and then another. Final appointment is by the new prime minister, who is not always bound to select the designated member, though he does in the main.

IT SEEMS LOGICAL that men who aspire to the presidency of the United States should be members of Congress who either show by their speeches and statements that they are qualified to discuss subjects of national importance or are high-ranking members of important committees who—on the floor of the House or Senate or in those committees—carry on their interrogation of the other party.

To a degree this is done in committee sessions of Congress now but it is not organized on a party basis or necessarily participated in by party leaders.

All in all, it would seem that if either Gov. Rockefeller or former Vice President Nixon is aspiring to the presidency, each should be living in Washington and give up all thought of serving in a state office. They should be devoting themselves to a day-by-day study of the operations of the national government.

Their task would be to develop a group of leaders, consult with them, and give expression to national party policies. They could, of course, make frequent speeches throughout the country.

The American people would then have some assurance that the potential nominees were intimately acquainted with the operations of the national government and were not simply voicing opinions from a distance as they concentrated on local affairs.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY served in congress a long time but he never was chosen as leader of his party in either house. In 1960 Vice President Nixon and Sen. Lyndon Johnson, each having served his own party in a position of leadership, would logically have been named to head their respective party tickets if the British system were applied.

While there are many customs in the parliamentary practice in Britain that Americans would not like to see duplicated here, nevertheless the "shadow cabinet" idea is well worth serious study by both major parties in this country.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I can choke up as pathetically as anyone about kids going back to school. . . and oh to be young again. . . until I remember the awful boredom of classrooms. Why was education made to seem so dull when it could have been made so exciting?

Once more it is that time of year when the birds quit singing but everything else that can make a noise lets fly in full blast when the sun goes down—tree frogs, crickets and hi-fi outfits.

Baseball still strikes me at the end of another season as a highly formalized type of athletic ballet in which everything possible has been done to make sure the observer sees or hears nothing that might be a deviation from the standard choreography.

I am a profit-sharer from away back when there are profits to share, but for obvious reason I want no part of loss-sharing, which is the obverse side of profit-sharing under a profit-and-loss system.

Short Circuits Cause 2 Calls For Firemen

Short circuits were blamed for two fire alarms Wednesday and early today, city firemen reported.

The department was called to the Travelers Hotel on E. 4th St. at 5:43 a. m. today when a short circuit developed in an electric motor. Firemen said they disconnected the wires leading to the switch.

They were called yesterday to the home of Charles Horton on Gaston Pl. by a short in the motor of a washing machine.

U.S. Grant III Quits As Head Of Civil War Group

CLINTON, N.Y. (AP) — Two members of the federal Civil War Centennial Commission, including the chairman, Ulysses S. Grant III, have resigned amid reports of friction within the commission over the demotion of its executive director.

Grant, grandson of the Union Army's Civil War commander, said Wednesday he had resigned because of the serious illness of his wife, the former Edith Root. Because of her illness, he said, he could not travel widely on commission business.

In Washington, the White House confirmed that Grant and Vice Adm. Stuart H. Ingersoll of the Naval War College had resigned from the commission. Pierre Salinger, press secretary, would neither make public their letters of resignation nor discuss their reasons.

President Kennedy ordered business sessions transferred to the Charleston Naval Base after the New Jersey delegation protested holding them in a segregated Charleston hotel.

"The Babe was the best," Mrs. Amy Warren said from her rocking chair at a veterans' home in nearby Madison. "But if this young fellow Maris can beat him, then I'm all for him."

Venire To Be Chosen For Driver's Hearing

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff announced a 30-member venire will be drawn this afternoon at 1:30 in Municipal Court for a jury trial set Sept. 18 for Paul Victor Dawson, 1948 Dresden Ave. Ext., accused of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Selection of the venire today will allow Bailiff Wilbert Taylor over a week in which to serve summonses on the prospective jurors, the judge pointed out.

Dawson was cited by the State Highway Patrol after his auto collided with a big earth hauler Aug. 9 at a freeway construction crossing just north of the city limits. Dawson pleaded innocent Aug. 15 and his counsel, Atty. George Aronson, filed the motion for the jury trial.

ticularly the Bolero Cafe, of even trying to enforce the no sale to minors.

"It is particularly nauseating to this court, why anyone would be willing to risk the life and limb of boy under 18 years of age from the profit from a bottle of beer. That is exactly what these cafes are doing.

"IF THE BOY spent a dollar on beer he risks his life, which in the present case resulted in a criminal offense. That is no concern of the innkeepers nor any concern of the owner of the Bolero Cafe so long as the last cent is squeezed out of these boys.

"While the court is indignant about the entire matter and particularly indignant about the lack of enforcement by the Liquor Control Board, the sole question before this court was whether the defendant, Bennie Corbisello, committed acts tending to cause the delinquency of the boy by the sale of liquor. The state did not prove that beyond a reasonable doubt. In fact, the state did not prove this by a preponderance of the evidence. Therefore, the defendant was found not guilty, and was discharged."

Heat Remains Despite Localized Showers

Localized showers this morning were welcomed by farmers but city residents found little relief from the week-long heat wave that may see another 90-high today.

The city got possibly 0.25 inch of rain but the Stratton Dam reported only a trace while Dam 10 near Steubenville recorded a heavy rain of 1.25 inches.

No rain had been predicted before Saturday but there may be more showers this afternoon or tonight.

Meanwhile, the temperature and humidity soared after the early-morning showers and the Ohio weatherman said today's high may be 85 to 90 with tonight's low 65 to 70. The downtown had a low of 70 this morning and the dam reported 75 after a hot high of 89 Wednesday afternoon.

Mediation Resumes In Palestine Strike

EAST PALESTINE — Mediation talks resumed this morning at New Waterford between management of the Kenmar Manufacturing Co. and representatives of members of the United Construction Workers who went on strike Aug. 15.

About 126 workers began picketing the furniture plant over three weeks ago with the expiration of the former contract. A stalemate developed last week when the two sides could not agree on the length of an extension of the previous contract.

The company had been seeking a cut in wages to meet competition from Southern factories. Carl Dressing of Akron, U.S. mediator, is sitting in on the talks at the New Waterford Bank.

Man Electrocuted

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—William Matheny, 43, of Nelsonville in Athens County was electrocuted Wednesday when the guide wires he was holding, leading to a crane boom, came in contact with a 23,000-volt power line.

2 Drivers Cited After Collisions

Two drivers were cited in separate traffic collisions near Wellsville and north of Cannons Mills Wednesday, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

John F. Kenney, 43, of Youngstown was cited after his car struck the rear of one operated by Alberta G. Watson, 49, of East Liverpool R. D. 1 at the intersection of Route 30 and 7 at 2 p. m.

Officers said Kenney, whose car hit the rear of the other stopped for the intersection, was charged with failure to halt in the assured clear distance. Damage was minor, the patrol said.

William Brown, 54, of Akron was cited for improper passing after his car sideswiped a truck driven by Wilbur Snively, 20, of Scio on Route 39 three miles west of Wellsville yesterday about 1 p. m.

Brown attempted to pass as the other driver made a left turn, according to officers, who said there was considerable damage to both vehicles.

conjunction with the high - lift crest-gated dam, the larger measuring 110 feet wide by 1,200 feet long and the auxiliary chamber 110 feet wide and 600 feet long.

The larger lock will pass 24 standard barges and a towboat in a single locking. A double locking would have been required in the old structures. The auxiliary chamber is the same size as the single chamber in the old locks.

At normal pool, the large lock chamber will use more than 120 million gallons of water in a single day's operation since approximately 20 million gallons is required for each locking. By comparison, the city of Pittsburgh uses about 102 million gallons daily for all purposes.

Boat Owners File Claims

The Wellsville Boat Club and 30 small craft owners have filed claims amounting to between $3,000 and $5,000 against a Mississippi barge line for damage received from an accumulation of heavy, oil-like liquid in the Ohio River this summer.

Dick Spahr, commodore, said the club has filed a claim for tar and oil pollution of its ramps, dock and ski jump against the Greenville (Miss.) Towing Co.

Though the club's claim is less than $100, the small craft owners' claims range from $75 to $150 each, and those filed by owners of fiberglass boats may amount to more.

The Greenville firm turned over the insurance claims to Crawford & Crawford Co. of Youngstown, insurance adjustors, and an appraiser is due this week to inspect the boats and the docks.

Spahr said the club's equipment was coated with a thick accumulation of the black substance Aug. 5-6 due to spillage in pumping operations of the Greenville Co. at the Mississippi-Ohio Oil Co. terminal on the River Rd.

The Boat Club head pointed out that the minimum cost of removing the substance from the small craft and restoring the paint is $75. The cost may run higher for owners of fiberglass boats which are not covered by paint, but become stained with the oily substance.

Spahr said the tar-like liquid leaked into the river on the Aug. 5 weekend. The liquid apparently floated down the Ohio side and reached the Wellsville area in pools of various sizes.

Paul Harvey To Speak At Lady Elks' Event

Paul Harvey, noted newscaster, author and columnist, will appear here Oct. 7 under auspices of the East Liverpool Lady Elks.

He will speak, beginning at 8 p. m., at the Westgate School Auditorium.

Proceeds will be used for the work the Lady Elks do on behalf of cerebral palsy and other civic projects.

Mrs. J. B. Maley Jr. is general chairman for the program. Her committee includes Mrs. R. J. Lamborn, Mrs. John Eccleston, Mrs. Samuel Webber, Mrs. James Bowen, Mrs. William Dunlap and Mrs. Richard Heddleston.

Tickets are now on sale and may be obtained from Lady Elks and the following business establishments: Heimie's, Owen Hardware and Mabel's Beauty Shop in East Liverpool and The Teapot in Chester.

Harvey's rise has been meteoric since he was discharged from the Air Force in 1944 and headed for Chicago.

When he gave his famous obituary of President Roosevelt, starting with "A great tree has fallen . . ." one station received 10,000 requests for reprints.

Harvey has hammered hard at inadequacies in government and other fields, but always, he says, he has been fighting "not against men, but against ideas which destroy men."

His own way of life includes a pleasant home in a Chicago suburb, where he lives with his wife and their son, Paul Harvey II, called "Hoppy".

For several years the Harveys have had a farm for feeder cattle on the Mississippi River below St. Louis, named Reveille Ranch in honor of a pet cocker spaniel.

Harvey, however, has little time for the farm with his rigid schedule of broadcasts. He is at the news room at 7 in the morning to prepare his Monday through Friday program heard from 12 noon to 12:15 p. m. Central Time. His Sunday commentary is at 5:15.

PAUL HARVEY
Will Be At Westgate Oct. 7.

Among his books are "Remember These Things", "Autumn Of Liberty" and "The Rest Of The Story".

On Jan. 3, 1955, Harvey launched his career as a syndicated newspaper columnist.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Gladys Castro, 22, of Lorain is the principal recipient of a $140,000 settlement resulting from an accident five years ago in Lorain. Thirteen lawsuits asking $1.5 million from personal injuries were settled Wednesday in Common Pleas Court here.

Miss Castro, a passenger in a car involved in an accident with a truck owned by Poornate Distributing Co., Lorain distributor of Pepsi-Cola, was paralyzed. She was awarded $120,000. Companion suits, involving loss of services and injuries to three others, made up the remaining $20,000.

National Air Show Set At Beaver County Port

Plans for the first annual national air show to be held at the Beaver County Airport near Beaver Falls have been announced by Al Bennett, airport manager.

The show will be Saturday at 7 p. m. and Sunday at 2 p. m., sponsored jointly by the Civil Defense and Civil Air Patrol.

The National Air Show was featured on the CBS-TV Sportspectacular in February and received one of the highest ratings for this type of entertainment, Bennett said.

The show will feature aerobatic champion Hal Krier, who will send his plane through a series of aerobatic maneuvers. He hails from Wichita, Kan., and is nationally known for his precision flying.

Another flying star will be Charlie Hillard, 22, America's youngest aerobatic flying ace, who will fly a clipped wing Super 85 Piper.

Bill Sweet of Columbus, who was No. 1 announcer for the Cleveland air races, will describe the action and color.

Another highlight of the show will be the appearance of Johnny Skyrocket, billed as America's fastest private jet pilot. He was the first private pilot to obtain a license for a vampire jet and taught himself how to fly it.

Johnny will be on hand Saturday at 7 p. m. and after the night fire works he will board a 40-foot rocket to demonstrate the procedure on a simulated rocket launching.

An additional attraction will find the local Sky Divers in a series of spotlanding jumps. Pat Laughton will make a special jump to officially open the show both days.

Joe Rabassi, old-time barnstorming aviation enthusiast who heads the Joseph C. Rabassi Aviation Service, will perform at the controls of a Boeing Skyrocket Super Special Stearman in a series of smoke aerobatics.

Another attraction will be Miss Delores Lemely of Woodsfield, Ohio, who will stand on top of Hal Krier's plane while he sends it through a series of smoke rolls and loops.

Stark County Voters To Decide Levies Fate

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Stark County voters in November will decide the fate of two tax levies—one for a new county home for the aged and the other to finance classes for retarded children.

The county home would cost more than $2 million and would be financed by a 1.3-mill levy for two years. Yield from a two-tenths of a mill three-year levy would provide $150,000 to $175,000 a year for retarded children. County Commissioners Wednesday approved placement of the levies on the ballot.

The open church wedding will take place Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church of Toronto with the Rev. Charles Dailey, pastor, officiating.

The bride-elect, a 1958 graduate of Toronto High School, was graduated this year from the Ohio Valley Hospital School of Nursing at Steubenville. She is employed in the medical-surgery unit.

Her fiance is a 1955 graduate of East Liverpool High School and works for the Crucible Steel Co. at Midland.

Miss Shelba Jean Miller And Gary E. Malone Wed

Miss Shelba Jean Miller wore an Alencon lace contour cap when she became the bride of Gary E. Malone the evening of Aug. 26 at 7:30 o'clock at the Oak Ridge United Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller of Wellsville R. D. 1 and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Malone, 1724 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville.

The Rev. Ernest E. Bacon, pastor, was assisted in the double-ring ceremony by the Rev. Clark Allison, pastor of the Wellsville Church of the Nazarene.

The altar was banked with bouquets of white mums and pink carnation, ferns, palms and seven-branch candelabra. Satin bows marked the family pews. Mrs. Catherine Leatherberry gave a half-hour recital of organ music. Miss Judith Dornick sang "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballerina-length gown of Alencon lace and tulle. The Basque bodice was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline, re-embroidered in pearls and sequins, and long, pointed sleeves.

A lace kerchief overskirt and medallion trim highlighted the bouffant skirt, with alternating tiers of lace and tulle for back accent. A fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to her bridal cap.

She carried a white Bible, the gift of her Sunday School teacher, Mrs. Ruth Frischkorn. It was topped with an arrangement of white carnations and roses with satin streamers tied in lovers' knots. She wore pearl earrings, the gift of the bridegroom, and observed the familiar traditions.

Mrs. Janet Carroll, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Bonita Brandt, another cousin, and Mrs. JoAnn McCauley, sister of the bridegroom.

They appeared in identical, street - length gowns of pale pink, nylon chiffon over taffeta. Designed with fitted bodices and full skirts, they were worn with feathered half - hats and white gloves, which were gifts of the bride. They carried white spray baskets, decorated with pink streamers, filled with roses and mums accented with fernery.

Richard Malone served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Larry Miller, the bride's brother, and Robert McCauley, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. They received cuff link and tie bar sets.

The mother of the bride chose a fall print of blue and white dacron with white accessories and a corsage of white and blue-tinted rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was attired in blue, nylon lace with white accessories and pink and white rosebud corsage.

A reception for 150 was held in the social rooms. A three-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple and encircled with ivy, centered the buffet table. White mums and pink carnations, along with lighted tapers, decorated the bride's table.

CHILD SAFETY WEEK

If, by this appeal, only One Accident is averted, we of GOLDEN STAR DAIRY are amply rewarded.
JOHN EIFERD, Pres.

PLEASE DON'T Hurt My Little Girl!

Yesterday, my 7 year old daughter started back to school. She was primped up in a blue dress with white collar, blue gloves and black shoes. "Scoot", her spaniel, sat on the porch and whined, as she waved goodbye.

Last night, we talked about school. About the new girl with yellow curls, about the big girls who didn't believe in Santa Claus, about the teacher with eyes in the back of her head. We talked about many such vital things . . . studied Reading and Spelling . . . then, off to bed.

She's asleep now, with her doll "Princess" cuddled in her arm. As her mother, I'm worried. You see, I can fix things when she cuts her finger or bumps her head. But when she's off to school and crossing streets, she's in YOUR hands. You wouldn't hurt her, would you?

She's sweet, precious . . . and we love her so. Runs like a deer, active as a chipmunk . . . likes to swim and go on hikes with her Daddy. But, we can't be with her all the time.

PLEASE help us look out for her. PLEASE Drive Carefully . . . slowly past Schools and at intersections. And PLEASE remember that children do run from behind parked cars.

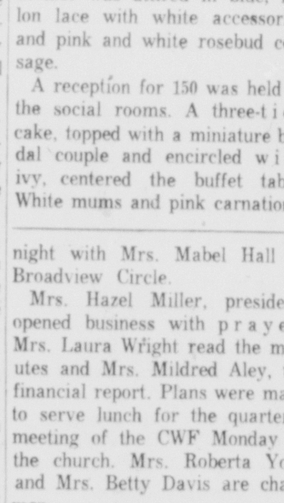

PLEASE DON'T HURT MY LITTLE GIRL!

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Exercise Reshapes Figure Proportions

Exercise can put life into your reducing program. Toned muscles enhance your vigor and give you more bounce and verve. This is a sedentary age.

Ida Jean Kain

Without planned exercise you will have great difficulty in avoiding fatty accumulation in nature's favorite parking places.

That brings up the question, is exercise reducing in spots? Spot reducing refers to inches . . . and calisthenics can most certainly help you to slim inches off specific measurements. Exercise stimulates circulation, promotes better muscle tone, and stops the sagging.

THE MUSCLES of the abdomen are the most neglected of any group. Fact is, a big stomach is not always a matter of excess fat on this measurement. The size may be caused in large part by lack of tone. Posture, too, is an important factor.

Keep your posture on the slim up-and-down muscle track — maintenance of good posture amounts to exercise.

A common complaint is that exercise makes you so much hungrier. But does it really? Do not confuse better appetite with bigger appetite. Exercise gives you a keener enjoyment of food. Experiments have shown that inactivity does not decrease appetite for the person who has the habit of overeating.

But lack of physical activity certainly does lower your calorie requirements.

The rewards of exercise are so great! By stepping up calorie burning with exercise, you can reduce at a satisfying rate without cutting calories so low as to feel uncomfortably hungry.

If you are a homemaker, you might tune in on an exercise program show on TV. Or you can purchase an exercise record and follow through with stretch, bend, swings.

—:—

OR JUST TURN on the music and move to the rhythm. Rhythm gives a lift . . . and makes exercise time fly.

To shift fat away from certain areas, make those specific muscles the target for the action. Exercise can help you to look and be firm and slim.

Join a dance group if you wish. Go bowling. Get out and walk. Swim at the "Y." Take any type of exercise you like best . . but take it. You can keep your summertime zest and vigor.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Can you suggest a cement for broken crockery that will resist both heat and water?

A. White lead is a good one. Apply it thinly to the broken edges of your crockery, press them tightly together, tie into place, and then set aside for two or three days to dry and set.

Q. How can I drive short tacks into hard-to-get-at corners?

A. Force the tack through a strip of paper, and hold the paper in place with your left hand as you drive in the tack with the hammer in your right hand.

Q. How can I remove some paint spatters from window glass?

A. A strong solution of baking soda will usually do a good job of this.

More Issues Entered For Fall's Ballots

Three more special questions and issues have been filed with the Election Board, boosting to 32 the number awaiting a vote by Columbiana County subdivisions at the Nov. 7 general election.

Hanover Township trustees filed a resolution asking a vote on a new one-mill levy for five years for cemetery maintenance.

Two more proposals were certified to the Columbiana County board by the Stark County board —both affecting the Minerva Local School District, which lies in both counties.

The district will vote on a $1,595,000 bond issue to construct and equip a new junior high school and elementary school. A 4.7-mill levy will be required for 20 years to liquidate the issue, the certification said.

The same district will vote on a renewal of a 2.6-mill levy with an increase of four-tenths of a mill to constitute a 3-mill levy for five years for operating expenses.

Meanwhile, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the Election Board, said a five-member committee has the right to name another candidate to fill the ballot vacancy created by the sudden death Saturday of Frank Colella, who was seeking re-election as a member of the New Waterford Board of Trustees of Public Affairs. Mr. Colella was stricken fatally while attending the Mahoning County Fair at Canfield.

The five - member nominating committee which Mr. Collella named on his non-partisan petition has the right to designate a new candidate. It is comprised of Joseph Taylor, Bert Keck, Lois Merriman, Jessie McCune and Esther Bretz.

The committee has until five days prior to the election to fill the vacancy, but the Election Board hopes it will act quickly because the board is holding up printing of the New Waterford ballot, meanwhile, O'Hanlon said.

Meanwhile, the number of precincts in Columbiana County Wednesday rose officially to 165, an increase of 13.

A hearing on establishment of the 13 new precincts was held Aug. 14. However, objections were raised in several instances to the lines set down for new precincts in Salem, Butler Township and Columbiana village.

The Election board made the changes and then provided for another 10-day waiting period for protests, as the law requires. The 10-day period passed Tuesday without any objections being filed, so establishment of the precincts became official.

The board has ordered equipment for all the new precincts in preparation for the November election, O'Hanlon said.

Bricks Removed From W. 3rd St. For Paving Job

Crews of Chapin & Chapin, Inc., one of the contractors on the city freeway project, Wednesday started removal of the old brick paving on W. 3rd St. between Monroe St. and Market St., prelude to installation of a brand new blacktop pavement.

The street will be surfaced with a nine-inch base and five inches of blacktop to provide a connecting link between Route 30 at 3rd and Market Sts. and the end of the four-lane freeway section at W. 3rd and Monroe St. There will be no cost to property - owners as the work is part of the overall freeway project.

A power shovel is scooping up the brick pavement and loading it onto city trucks. The street department will salvage the bricks and use them for gutter paving and other jobs, Supt. W. M. Laughlin said.

The public probably will be allowed to travel W. 3rd after the paving is removed, as was the case when the bricks were taken up earlier on the stretch on the extreme west end of W. 3rd near Monroe St., Laughlin said.

Union Group Attends Youngstown Meeting

Fred Kane, president, and Francis Cubberly represented unionized East Liverpool city employes Tuesday night when Council 18, State, County and Municipal Employes, met at the Tod Hotel in Youngstown.

Cubberly gave the legislative committee's report on proposals that will be presented to the state convention of the group Saturday and Sunday at Columbus. Kane and Cubberly will be delegates.

Ed Dailey, regional AFL - CIO director, also reported on the convention plans. The regional council represents public employes in Columbiana, Trumbull and Mahoning Counties.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Problems Can Crop Up On Home Work

When your child, especially in grades between three and six, must prepare written work for school, check on each paper to make sure that it is reasonably neat and legible and that every word in it is spelled correctly. If it is not reasonably neat, require him to write it again, helping him spell correctly the words he misspelled.

Dr. Garry Meyers

Let's entreat teachers to make assignments shorter and to cooperate with us in furthering neatness and precision by the child, especially in the grades.

—:—

A CONSTANT problem you face when you require your child to do over his written work, or even to do all of it once, is that you may break into his sleeptime, may keep him up too late — a strong argument for short homework assignments by the school.

Often this problem could be prevented by having the child begin his homework, regularly, at an earlier hour.

There might well be one or more PTA programs a year in which these problems could be discussed, from the angles of the home and school.

To encourage the child, say in grades three to 12 or so, to acquire a spelling conscience, by which he tries to make sure he can spell each word before he writes it, you should gladly spell for him any word he asks you to spell. If you merely tell him to look it up in the dictionary, he won't; he will guess at its spelling. The correct spelling of some of the words you won't be sure about yourself; then you should consult the dictionary and encourage him to help you do so.

IF IN THESE ways you foster a companionable relationship with the child, you may be able to cause him to be more ready to look up a word for himself and thus grow in self-reliance.

Certainly, as you check on his written work and find some misspelled words, you should write down for him the correct spelling of each word, if you wish to cultivate in him a better spelling conscience.

My bulletins, "Home Helps in Spelling and Handwriting", may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Pamona Grange will meet Saturday at Brighton Grange at 2 p. m. and 7 p. m. The fifth degree will be conferred at the evening meeting.

Election of officers for the juvenile and subordinate granges will be held at the next meeting Sept. 19 at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Helen Holava, degree team captain, was awarded a certificate from the Pennsylvania State Grange in the 1961 better ritual contest. Smith presented the award.

Paul Dawson, master, presided.

Much-Abused 'Ain't' To Be In Dictionary

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — The much-abused term "ain't" has been accepted for Webster's third New International Dictionary, to be published Sept. 28.

The new dictionary, Gordon J. Gallan, president of G. & C. Merriam Co., said Wednesday would say "Ain't is used orally in most parts of the U.S. by cultivated speakers."

Pastor Claimed After Clash Of 2 Negro Factions

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—The Rev. A. G. Wright of Detroit, died today of injuries suffered during an outburst of jostling and pushing Wednesday when two factions of the Negro National Baptist Convention, USA, sought control of the rostrum at Municipal Auditorium.

He fell off the stage during the struggle. His head hit the floor. He died at 3 a.m. without regaining consciousness, attendants said. He was about 50 years old.

Delegates to the annual meeting are scheduled to elect officers today under a court-approved plan designed to prevent further violence. About 6,000 delegates are here for the meeting.

Heads of the factions are the Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Jackson of Chicago and the Rev. Dr. Gardner C. Taylor of Brooklyn. Both claim they were elected president at the 1960 convention in Philadelphia.

At a hearing Wednesday in Circuit Court, the leaders agreed that the Rev. Dr. D. A. Holmes of Kansas City should preside over today's election.

The court order enjoined the delegates from "any boisterous, unruly, or other conduct tending to interfere or obstruct the business of the convention."

Police swarmed through the auditorium Wednesday in an effort to restrain the two factions.

Mayor H. Roe Bartle finally quelled the hubbub. He told the delegates: "If you came to Kansas City to raise hell, you should go home."

Because both old - fashioned rice pudding and Indian pudding take to long oven-baking, prepare them at one time. Serve the rice pudding right away and refrigerate the Indian pudding to be served cold or reheated when needed.

Contract Is Awarded For Salem Post Office

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Wednesday announced award of a contract to Ralph A. Durbin, Euclid, Ohio, for construction of a new post office at Salem, Ohio.

The Post Office Department said Durbin submitted the best of five bids received.

The contract calls for construction of the post office on the northwest coroner of Penn and Columbia Streets and then leasing the building to the department for 20 years at an annual rental of $55,800.

The structure will have an interior space of 12,199 square feet. There will be 17,766 square feet of space for driveways and parking of postal vehicles.

Dodgers Slice Reds' Lead To 1 Game

LA Sweeps Set; Cards Belt Cincy

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers have scrapped back to within one game of Cincinnati's stumbling Reds in the National League pennant race.

After blowing a 3-0 lead against San Francisco Wednesday night the Dodgers went to work, coming from behind with a five-run eighth for a 9-5 victory.

Cincinnati lost to St. Louis 11-5.

While the Dodgers swept their four-game series with San Francisco, still hopeful Milwaukee beat Philadelphia 1-0 as Warren Spahn nailed his 306th career victory, most ever in one league by a left-handed pitcher. The Chicago Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 6-2.

The Dodgers got started on the big eighth when Frank Howard, who had singled home two runs in the first, rifled a single that almost knocked down losing reliever Stu Miller (10-4) of the Giants. Willie Davis went in as a pinch runner, stole second and scooted on to third on catcher Ed Bailey's wild peg. Pinch hitter Norm Larker brought him in with a single, tying it 5-all, and John Roseboro followed with a pinch double that gave Los Angeles the lead. An error, a walk, Wally Moon's two-run single and a force out by Snider brought in the other three. Snider also hit a solo home run in the fifth.

Roger Craig (5-6), fourth of six Dodger pitchers, was the winner. He faced just one man after Larry Sherry had to leave in the eighth because of arm trouble. The Giants wiped out the Dodgers' 3-0 lead with home runs by Jim Davenport, Felipe Alou and Orlando Cepeda off starter Sandy Koufax.

St. Louis twice came from behind against the Reds after knocking out their ace right-hander, 19-game winner Joey Jay, with two runs in the first inning. A two-run sixth on two of the Reds' four errors, Stan Musial's sacrifice fly and Ken Boyer's single, put it away and beat reliever Jim Maloney (6-6).

Right - hander Larry Jackson (12-9), a winner in nine of his last 10 decisions, settled down after walking three men on 12 consecutive pitches in a three-run third and held the Reds to one run, a homer by Jerry Lynch, over the last six innings.

Spahn (18-12), closing in on his 12th season of 20 or more victories, beat Eddie Plank's record of 305 victories, all in the AL, by blanking the Phils on three singles. It was Spahnie's 54th career shutout.

The Braves, now six games in back of Cincinnati, had five hits, scoring in the first inning off John Buzhardt (5-16) on a walk, Ed Mathews' single and Hank Aaron's sacrifice fly.

Dragons Set For Shot At State Football Crown Again

The East Liverpool Potters will have two strikes on them before they even line up for the opening kickoff Saturday at 8 p. m. at Riverside Stadium, Niles.

First, East Liverpool, opening the 1961 season, faces an opponent which finished second in the final rankings last year and appears even stronger this season and is given a very good chance of making a run for the state title.

Secondly, the Potters have practiced all week without the benefit of having head coach Bob Hedmond on the scene. Hedmond has been in Follansbee because of the death of his father.

Besides these factors, the Potters are grass green and will face a more experienced foe which will outweigh the Blue and White gridders at every position.

Assistants Rey Peduzzi, Nunzio Polichene and Jack Bair have been working overtime in an effort to have the Blue and White ready for Saturday night's encounter. Hedmond plans to join the team Friday.

COACH TONY Mason of Niles, who is one of the winningest coaches in the business with a career record of 60 wins, 9 defeats and 5 ties, watched his team score two touchdowns against Massillon while holding the Tigers scoreless in a scrimmage session last weekend.

In 1960, when Mason led Niles to a second place spot behind Massillon, his team went undefeated with nine victories. A 13-13 tie with Farrell, Pa., was the only blemish on the record.

Out of the 11 offensive starters Saturday, eight will be lettermen. They are headed by two rugged backs and an end who is rated by college scouts as one of the best linemen in Ohio.

The back who has been singled out to lead the Dragons this season is Rick Sygar, who is billed as 155 pounds of dynamite. He scored both TD's in the scrimmage with Massillon and tallied 86 points during his junior year.

The other veteran back is Marty Coates (170), a two-year letterman at that position, who was one of the big reasons in back of the successful season last year.

COATES has been nursing a shoulder separation and has not had much contact work. If he isn't quite ready, Mason will use Dave Metheny, a 165-pound senior.

The only spot where Mason isn't set is right halfback, but Reggie McGinnis, a 165 - pound senior who lettered last season being used as a spot player, has the inside track at present. Bob Rein, who starred last year as a sophomore, may get the call over McGinnis.

The biggest surprise at Niles this season came at a most vital spot — quarterback. Blossoming into a topnotch passer is Jim Seiber, who weighs 155 pounds and is only a junior.

College scouts have been casting bouquets at end Dennis Flanagan, a 6-2, 210-pound letterman. They were sold on him as a junior and reports say he is even better this season.

At the other end spot will be John Samu (170), a junior who failed to letter in 1960.

THE TACKLES are a couple of 200-pounders in Charlie Kines and Karl Singer. Both are senior lettermen, with Kines hitting 220 on the scales and Singer 210.

The guards will be Sam Davis (190), who did not win a letter last season, and Stan Thompson, a 170-pound letterman.

Mason will make four changes on defense, with Pat Glancy, a walloping 240-pound guard, one of them.

Mason, who is used to winning streaks after having a 28-game string going at Brookfield where he coached before coming to Niles, shows a record of 18 straight wins at Niles. The last game Niles lost was the 1958 opener to Youngstown Rayen, 15-14.

EL Gridder Injures Ankle In Practice

All but one of the district's high school grid teams will launch their schedules this weekend.

Fourteen games are set, eight on Friday night and six more on Saturday afternoon and evening.

The only team in the district not opening this weekend is Columbiana, which will launch its season Sept. 14 at home with McDonald.

East Liverpool, which has always opened on Friday night, will mark time until Saturday. The Potters travel to Niles to take on a team that appears to have the material to go all the way to a state championship.

The Dragons were rated second in last season's final football poll.

Three local schools share the headline Friday night in big openers. Freedom will test Wellsville's strength at Nicholson Stadium, where Coach Ken Woods will unleash Roger Ours & Co.

The lights will be turned on at Beaver Local for the first night football game at that school and a strong Leetonia eleven will serve as the opposition. Game time is 8.

Ellwood City invades Midland, where Charlie Polce is beginning his second year as head coach and has his hopes high for a winning season following an unsuccessful campaign in 1960.

Coach Rey Dempsey will make his debut at East Palestine Friday night when the Bulldogs entertain Canfield in a non - league contest.

Another area coach making his first appearance is Don McBride, who took over the head coaching job at Stanton Local. McBride sends the Irondale eleven against Hopedale, the school where he coached last season. The Stanton-Hopedale battle is set for the Irondale field.

East Liverpool nd Niles feature Saturday's action, while Chester and United are billed in an afternoon game beginning at 2 at Hanoverton.

Coach Dom Amedeo faces the task of holding his team together until some of his first stringers get off the injured list.

Pete Horoszko takes his Newell Vikings to Follansbee for a clash with St. Anthony Saturday night.

'Have Hit More On Road'

Maris Offended By Claim That Stadium Is Paradise

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris, a man of definite opinion, took issue today with those who claim that Yankee Stadium, a paradise for left-handed hitters, has been helpful in his bid to break Babe Ruth's record.

"I agree that this park has got to help a left-handed hitter like myself," he conceded. "But I still think I'd have hit just as many, or nearly as many, if I were still playing with Kansas City.

"Check my home runs and you'll find that I have hit more home runs on the road than at home. I don't know how many I hit in other parks this year but I know last year I hit 26 or 27 of my 39 on the road."

The records bear that out. Roger slammed No. 54 of the season at Yankee Stadium Wednesday as Whitey Ford won his 23rd with a five-hit 8-0 decision over Washington. The victory increased the New York Yankees' first place lead over Detroit to eight games.

Maris's homer, putting him seven games ahead of Ruth's pace when the Babe slammed 60 in 1927, was Rog's 26th at Yankee Stadium. The other 28 have been hit in foreign fields. Mickey Mantle, who walked twice but failed to hit any out of the park, has hit 29 of his 51 in enemy territory.

Maris' homer No. 54 was caught by teammate Bob Hale in the Yankee bullpen. The reserve first baseman presented it to Roger for his collection.

"I began saving them after I reached the 40's," Maris explained. "Every homer I hit after 40 I kept thinking might be my last one so I figured I might as well save them."

Maris writes the date and number on each home run ball that is returned to him. He didn't know how many he had because he gave some of them away to friends.

"No more," he said. "From now on, I'm going to keep every one of them."

He conceded they might be harder to come by from now because "those pitchers are changing up on me a lot more now. I'm not getting many pitches over the plate. They're either outside or inside. I really don't expect any down the pipe. When one comes, I'm surprised."

Iowa, Ohio State Picked On Top In Big Ten Race

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Iowa and Ohio State shape up as the strongest claimants to the Big Ten football title this season.

Michigan State, which doesn't play either of the co-favorites, is considered the most dangerous threat. Wisconsin and Michigan could be the major surprises.

Minnesota — 1960 co-champion with Iowa — Northwestern, Purdue, Indiana and Illinois appear to be relegated to second division.

Jerry Burns, who takes over for Forest Evashevski as Iowa coach, inherits 20 lettermen, including eight starters. Agility in the line will be supported by one of the country's fastest backfields — quarterback Wilburn Hollis, Larry Ferguson, Joe Williams and Sammie Harris.

Michigan State has 26 letterwinners, including 17 seniors. Power-running veteran backs include Ron Hatcher, George Saimes, Carl Charon and Gary Ballman.

Michigan can field an all letterman team. Behind Dave Glinka at quarterback are Bob Chandler and Frosty Evashevski, son of Iowas athletic director. Ends Scott Maentz and George Mans are fine pass catchers.

Maris Swats No. 54, Stays 7 Ahead Of Babe's Pace

Ford Beats Nats, 8-0, To Post 23rd Victory

Six more. Two every five games. That's all it will take now for Roger Maris to hit 60 home runs and tie Babe Ruth's long elusive record.

After belting No. 54, for his first hit in 17 at bats, as the New York Yankees clobbered Washington 8-0 Wednesday, Maris is seven games ahead of Ruth's record pace of 1927.

Mickey Mantle, who has paired with Maris for half of the Yankees' AL record setting 210 homers this season, was 0-for-2, walking twice Wednesday and now is one game and one home run behind Ruth's pace. Mantle has hit 51.

Pushed to the background as Maris' 54th set off an awesome display of five Yankee home runs Wednesday was the fact that Whitey Ford became the first left-hander to win 23 games in the AL since 1952 and that New York powered eight games ahead of idle Detroit.

The Chicago White Sox beat Minnesota twice, 6-3 and 4-2 in 10 innings, and Boston clipped Cleveland 9-4 in the only other AL games scheduled.

Maris' solo home run, his ninth against Washington, broke up a scoreless duel between Ford (23-3) and Tom Cheney (1-3) and got the Yankees started on a five-run fourth inning after two were out. John Blanchard belted two. Bill Skowron and Bob Hale hit the other home runs.

Ford allowed five hits and struck out seven. The win reduced the Yanks' magic number to 16—any combination of New York victories or Detroit defeats totaling 16 clinches the flag.

The White Sox banged 13 hits, one a homer by Nellie Fox, and beat Pete Ramos (10-17) as Juan Pizarro (13-5) won his seventh in a row in the first game at Minnesota, a replay of Tuesday's 3-3 tie. Two unearned runs in the 10th won the second game for the Sox and Don Larsen (7-1). Camilo Pascual (12-15) was the loser.

Rookie Carl Yastrzemski drove in four runs, three with a homer, for Boston. Rookie Don Schwall (14-4) kept the Indians in check although allowing 11 hits. Jim Perry (9-13) lost it.

Awaits Opener Saturday

15 Lettermen Give United Something To Look Forward To In 1961 Season

HANOVERTON — Coming up with one of the largest groups of lettermen around the district is Ray Russell at United as he rounds his Golden Eagles into shape for their opener Saturday with Chester.

Eleven of the veterans are seniors and four are juniors.

Three senior backs lead the way among the lettermen. John Hanna, who developed fast last season as a junior, returns to his quarterback post where he showed up well as a passer and runner. Hanna, who is also a standout on the basketball court, goes 160 pounds.

Joining him in the backfield is veteran Larry Marks (190) who was a mainstay as a junior last season. Russell has Marks listed for fullback duty.

The other back is Dick Strong, a 155-pounder who is battling for a halfback spot with junior lettermen Bill Schroyer, a 180-pounder, and Gary Blythe (150). Backing Hanna up at quarterback is junior letter-winner Gary Milliken at 150.

Russell has a host of experienced linemen. Going across the forward wall is Ronnie Hawkins (160), who will be used at either end or tackle. The United coach shows two ends who saw plenty of action during the 1960 campaign in Jim Sturgeon (150) and Kenny Metzgar (140), a speedster.

Rated one of the top tackles in the county is Pete Schweigert, a two-year veteran and the biggest man on the squad at 210. His running mate at tackle is another letterman John Marks at 185.

Two senior guards who won letters last year are among those battling for the posts again. They are Don Smallwood (130) and Glenn Willis (180). John Blanchard, a 165-pound junior, also is in the thick of things.

A squad of 40 boys has been working out, with 14 seniors, six juniors, eight sophomores and 12 freshmen.

Assisting Russell this season is Larry Joseph, who also serves as head basketball coach, and Mel Klingler, a Youngstown University graduate starting his second year at United.

Chester will visit United Saturday afternoon for the 1961 opener beginning at 2.

More Than 25,000 Gridders

671 Ohio Schoolboy Teams Set To Open This Weekend

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's high school gridders are ready to dash into the 1961 football campaign with their usual vim and vigor.

More than 25,000 youngsters are on the 671 scholastic squads, many of which open pigskin warfare this weekend. Practice started Aug. 18, and Friday is the earliest date for a regular game or preview.

Many of the teams will zoom through 10 or 11-game schedules before the state championship is decided in The Associated Press poll of sports writers in late November. Others play as few as eight contests.

Massillon won the state title a year ago—but there could be a big chance this time despite the fact the usually terrific Tigers are touted as being "loaded" with talent.

Last Saturday Coach Leo Strang's Stark Countians staged a practice scrimmage against 1960 runner-up Niles McKinley and reports from the battle scene were that the Red Dragons outclassed the Tigers 12-0, piled up a 17-6 edge in first downs, and outgained Massillon 217 yards to 126.

Toledo Macomber was drubbed 24-0 by both Massillon and Niles in the round-robin affair staged before 5,000 fans.

The first look at the top-notchers against regular-season foes comes this weekend as East Liverpool's Potters meet Niles on the latter's gridiron Saturday, and Massillon entertains Newark — a brand new foe—Friday night.

Springfield South's Wildcats, nearly always among the Top Ten in the weekly Associated Press ratings, will be idle this week. But Hamilton Garfield, rated the favorite over Springfield in the Greater Ohio League race, opens against Fairfield Friday. Coach Lou Florio's Hamilton team, with an 8-3 record last year, has a host of returning lettermen.

Glenn (Tiger) Ellison, who has a 107-43-8 record for 15 seasons at Middletown, sends his Middies against Zanesville Friday in another big one. Portsmouth's Trojans, with the Class AA basketball title tucked away, go against Charleston, W.Va., with only six seniors on the squad as Howard Baughman faces a rebuilding year.

Until a few games have been played the championship picture will be a bit hazy. But one thing is certain in the early season contests—a host of new names will flash across the scholastic screen, turning expected setups into upsets.

With ancient rivals to overcome, and with the state championship and All-Ohio berths waiting at the end of the trail, there's plenty of incentive for the kids to give the campaign their all.

Last year's Top Ten in the AP ratings, in order, were Massillon, Niles, Alliance, Sandusky, Dayton Colonel White, Cincinnati Purcell, Marion Harding, Toledo Central, Troy and Port Clinton.

Only two of those had made the 1959 Top Ten—so look for a lot of new faces again in 1961.

Laver Takes Court Today In Nationals

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Rod Laver, almost everyone's choice to win the title, gets his first stern test in the National Tennis Championships today when he faces big Chris Crawford of Piedmont, Calif.

Crawford, 22, is one of the few folks who thinks Laver won't win the crown.

"I think I have a chance against him," said the Corpus Christi, Tex., university student. "We've played only once before and that was in Perth, Australia, last year. He won in four sets, but it was close. The last set, in fact, was 14-12."

Meanwhile, the three seeded players who saw action Wednesday sailed into the quarter-final round. Roy Emerson, Laver's Aussie pal, downed Harry Hoffman Jr. of Philadelphia, 6-1, 12, 6-2. Jon Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., whipped Crawford Henry of Atlanta 3-6, 6-3, 7-5, 8-6 and Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn, No. 8 halted Jack Forst of Monterrey, Calif., 6-2, 7-9, 6-4, 6-1.

In the women's division, things were black indeed, for the United States contingent.Top-seeded Darlene Hard is the only American girl to make the quarter-finals.

The other seven are Yola Ramirez of Mexico, who plays Miss Hard today; Angela Mortimer, Christine Truman and Ann Haydon, all of Britain, and Margaret Smith and Lesley Turner of Australia.

Liston Will Face Trial Sept. 28

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Heavyweight boxer Charles (Sonny) Liston faces trial Sept. 28 on charges of turning off his car lights to avoid arrest after an incident in Fairmount Park.

Joseph Scanlon, commissioner of jury trials set the trial date Wednesday after Liston pleaded innocent.

Bucks' Halfbacks To Carry Ball More

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State football fans undoubtedly will be treated to a play this year that was almost extinct last season—a halfback carrying the ball.

Buckeye halfbacks got their hands on the ball only about six times per game last year, but Coach Woody Hayes is grooming a couple of all-state sophomores for the jobs this season.

Fleet-footed Paul Warfield of Warren has practically clinched the left halfback spot and Matt Snell, Locust Valley, N.Y., speedster, is looming very big for the right half post. Snell, a 6-foot-2, 212-pounder, also is likely to play

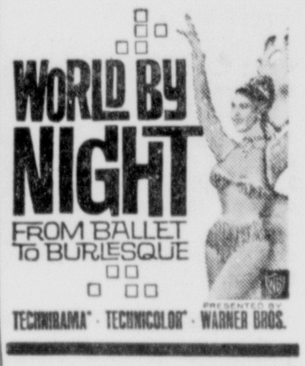

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching — Warren Spahn, Braves, beat Phils 1-0 with three-hitter, walking just one and striking out six, for ninth straight complete game victory and 306th career victory, a major league record by a left-hander in one league.

Hitting — Ken Boyer, Cards, went 3-for-4 and broke 5-5 tie with sixth-inning single in 11-5 victory over first place Reds.

Youngstown Mayor Given New Warning

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Common Pleas Judge Frank J. Battisti has warned Mayor Frank R. Franko that he will have him jailed if he makes any more derogatory comments about the judge.

The judge's ire was aroused by a radio statement Mayor Franko made Tuesday night after the judge found him in contempt of court and fined him $500 and costs. The judge had sentenced Franko to jail for 10 days, in addition to the fine, but suspended the jail term.

In a note to City Law Director S. S. Fekett Wednesday, Judge Battisti said if there are any more such comments from the mayor he will make Franko serve out his 10-day sentence.

The mayor, in his radio statement, had referred in a derisive manner to the way the judge read his decision.

The reason for the contempt citation was an alleged threat by the mayor to bring charges of prejudice against Judge Battisti unless the judge granted a continuation in a case involving former Civil Service Commission Chairman Paul J. Fleming. Fleming was appealing his firing by the mayor.

Jaycees' Board Receives Reports

Reports on the activities of various committees were heard by the Junior Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors at a meeting Tuesday night at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Frank Potts, chairman, reported on the semi-pro football game sponsored Saturday night at Patterson Field. Frank Dawson, chairman, gave the final report on the youth fitness program and suggested a bid be made to hold the state finals at East Liverpool next year.

William Webber, president, reported on the state building fund for a new headquarters at Marion. A committee was named to form a convention club.

William W. Jackson, 520 5th St., Chester, was accepted as a new member.

The general membership meeting will be Sept. 18 at the Travelers Hotel. An Ohio Bell Telephone Co. official will be guest speaker. The fall all-state meeting will be Sept. 30-Oct. 1 at Columbus.

Mount Union Receives $671,958 In Gifts

ALLIANCE, Ohio — Mount Union College received $671,958 in total gifts for the fiscal year ended June 30 — about $13,000 less than the record $685,329 in 1959-60 according to President Carl C. Bracy.

Included in the amounts given this year were $349,522 for buildings, $173,846 for current operations, $145,990 for endowment and $2,600 for student loans.

Dr. Bracy indicated $352,246 was contributed by alumni and friends, while corporations gave $281,712 and the conferences and boards of the Methodist Church $101,000.

Weirton Man Named Congressman's Aide

Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey of the 1st W. Va. Congressional District today announced the appointment of Louis Serra of Weirton to his congressional staff.

A former radio news director, Serra resigned to accept the appointment which the veteran congressman said was made "to enable me to get closer to the problem of the people in the counties which the State Legislature has added to my district."

Rep. Bailey said he expects to open an office in Wheeling soon.

Truck Drivers End 2-Hour Wildcat Strike

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — About 35 truck drivers reportedly agreed to go back to work today following a two-hour wildcat strike Wednesday to protest load restrictions in Fairport Harbor.

The drivers, members of the Teamsters Union Excavating and Building Material Drivers Local 436 in Cleveland, said the three-year-old ordinance is cutting into their paychecks, which are determined on a tonnage and mileage basis. The men are hauling sand and gravel from the Fairport docks to construction sites along the Lakeland Expressway and North-South Freeway in Lake County.

Groundbreaking Set For Freeway Project

ZELIENOPLE, Pa. (AP) — A groundbreaking ceremony will be held Friday for a three-mile bypass around this Butler County community marking the first actual construction on the Erie-Pittsburgh Freeway.

Tammany's Power Faces Critical Test

NEW YORK (AP)—The future of Tammany Hall as the top political force in the nation's largest city is at stake in a Democratic mayoral primary election today. The campaign has been bitter.

The opponents:

Mayor Robert F. Wagner, who has split with the organization and is running for renomination for a third four-year term with the backing of insurgents on an "anti-bossism" platform.

State Comptroller Arthur Levitt, backed by Tammany, the Manhattan organization, and organization leaders in other boroughs. Their theme is that the insurgents are out to "rule or ruin" the party.

Political pundits figure the outcome could be close.

Clear, cooler weather is forecast for the polling hours, 3 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Pushing the insurgent drive are former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt although they are not seeking office themselves.

Tammany chief Carmine G. DeSapio heads the leaders backing Levitt.

Republicans are hopeful that the Democratic split will enable State Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, their unopposed mayoral nominee, to capture City Hall in the Nov. 7 general election.

Such a triumph would be the first for a Republican on a strictly GOP ticket in a century and would give a shot in the arm to Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's state organization.

Newell Legion Gives $25 To Child Center

Newell American Legion Post 114 met Wednesday evening and made a $25 donation to the Child Counseling Center of East Liverpool.

A membership "kickoff" dinner was reported in the planning stage. Arthur DeLong, commander, presided and members were reminded that current dues cards are available.

Dewayne Staley, service officer, and Leroy Riddle, child welfare officer, gave reports. Next meeting is Sept. 20 at the post home.

3 Ohioans Nominated For Postmaster Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has sent to the Senate these Ohio postmaster nominations:

Erva L. Sibrel, Gypsum; Richard L. Rizor, Mount Victory; Kenneth W. Bailey, New Albany; George G. Walters, Reynoldsburg.

Loss Of $877 Reported For Looting Case

Police pushed a search today for intruders who escaped with merchandise valued at $877 in a burglary discovered Wednesday at the Jewel Tea Co. warehouse on Myrtle St., East End.

Three air conditioners valued at $200 each comprised the bulk of the loot from the standpoint of value, police reported.

The intruders also escaped with six transistor radios valued at $29.95 each, a portable cooler worth $49.95, two pillows worth a total of $10.95, six crib mattresses valued at $3.95 each, a clothes hamper worth $5.95, two aluminum "chicken fryer" pans worth $10.88 each and a four-piece set of cookingware worth $24.95.

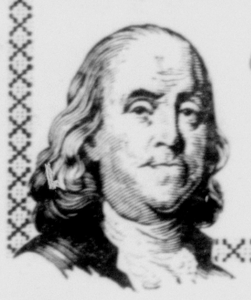

Entry was gained by removing a lock on a door, officers said. The burglary was timed between 6 p. m. Tuesday and 9:17 a. m. Wednesday.

The entry first was reported to Patrolman Charles A. Winters, desk officer at headquarters. Patrolman Floyd K. Heddleston investigated.

To reheat rolls, place them in a heavy pan, cover tightly, and put them in a hot oven for about 10 minutes.

As Benjamin Franklin SAID:

Mix Granulated Sugar and gelatin in top of double boiler. Add milk gradually; blend well. Place over boiling water. Stir until hot. Blend lemon juice, rind and yolks. Blend a little of hot milk mixture into yolks. Stir yolk mixture gradually into hot mixture until well blended. Cook over hot water, stirring occasionally until mixture thickens. Remove from heat and cool thoroughly. Beat Superfine Sugar into beaten whites a little at a time until meringue stands in peaks. Fold into lemon base. Pour into 1-quart mold, chill about 4 hours or until set. Turn out, serve with sweetened whipped cream. Yield: 6 servings.

Industry Sets Traffic Plan

A general traffic ordinance is being prepared by Industry Borough Council, it was reported after a meeting Wednesday evening in the Borough Building.

The ordinance will include regulations on load limits, parking and stop signs. It is being prepared by Atty. Charles Barrickman, solicitor, in conjunction with Council's legislative committee.

Council passed an ordinance vacating the lower portion of Russell Hill Rd. The borough decided the section of road was too much to maintain.

Mayor Harry H. Davis asked all Council members to meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. to discuss the borough's Civil Defense with Francis Crytzer Jr., director.

Councilman Allen Craft, chairman of the fire and police committee, reported the fire truck is being repaired and should be back in operation this weekend.

Calvin Dunlap, president, presided. Next meeting will be announced.

PUZZLED

We, frankly, are puzzled at the fact that we didn't sell this fine three bedroom red brick home within a few days and we are seriously interested in finding out why.
The first unusual factor is that very few people have looked at it, although the price is very fair. The ones who have seen it have said it is a wonderful buy, and three of them would have taken it if they could have arranged financing.
The only reason that we can attribute our luck to is that maybe our price is so low that folks don't realize how much we actually are offering for their dollar in this case.
It is well-located on a nice level lot in a good community, is only 7 years old and the price is only $14,500

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm getting fed up with the letters you've been printing from wives who are suspicious of their husbands' secretaries. I'll wager 80 per cent of the wives who write are in the change of life and off their rockers. If they knew what most secretaries thought of their bosses they wouldn't be so concerned.

I've been a secretary for more than 20 years. I've worked in four different offices and have become acquainted with dozens of secretaries. I don't know of one who has ever set her cap for her boss. Nor have I known of a single case where the boss made a pass.

An office is the most unromantic place in the world. Will you please spike this ridiculous cancard for all time?—HELEN.

Dear Helen: Marriages may be made in heaven but a good many of the earthly contacts are made right down here in offices—unromantic places that they are.

Repentant Bride

Dear Ann: I married last year when I was 19 and my husband was 20. I quit college because I became pregnant but he still has two years before graduation.

Two months ago we had a big argument over nothing important. I phoned my mother. She said to get on a plane and fly home—that it would teach him a lesson. I went home bag and baggage and my baby was born three weeks later.

My father is well off financially. I have a nurse for the baby and everything I want—except my husband. I miss him terribly but my folks won't let me call him. They say he should call me. I have an idea that he may have tried but they wouldn't let me know about it.

Now they are urging me to divorce but I'm so mixed up I don't know what to do. My folks love the baby and say I will always have a wonderful home with them. Please give me some help. —BLUE MOON.

Dear Blue: Get on the next vehicle that's moving in the right direction and go back to your husband. Your baby needs a father more than you need a fur-lined existence with your parents.

And the next time you get into an argument with your husband stay off the horn and settle it with him. There would be fewer wrecked lives and emotionally disturbed children if kids didn't have the paneled doors of parental homes ready to swing open for them.

Yakkety 'Yuk'

Dear Ann: I have been going with "Yuk" (his nickname) for six months. He has lots of faults but I was crazy about him and decided since I wasn't perfect I shouldn't be so fussy. He had a bad habit of breaking dates at the last minute or not showing up at all.

My mother got furious over this but his excuses were so sensible I never felt it was a slam against me.

Last night "Yuk" came over to tell me he wanted to break up. When I began to cry he offered me his brother as a substitute. He says his brother has always liked me and he's more my type.

Well, Ann, I don't want his brother. I want him. What can I do?—DAMP PILLOW.

Dear Damp: I can't gift-wrap the "Yuk" and give him to you. And even if I could, why would you want him, knowing that he doesn't want you?

Tell him good riddance and not to concern himself with a winter replacement. A little dignity can go a long way.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Young Housewife Uses Empty Gun To Hold Burglar

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —A pregnant young housewife surprised a Negro burglar in her home, chased him out onto a busy street and held him at bay with an empty pistol until police arrived.

Sandra Cutts, 19, said she arrived home with her one-year-old daughter Wednesday after having lunch with a sister. She found the burglar, identified as Arthur J. Newton Jr., 15, in her kitchen.

She put her baby down, grabbed the pistol and chased Newton out of the back door, down an alley and out onto the street.

"I got so mad I didn't have time to get scared," she said. "It's a good thing he stopped, or else I don't know what I would have done. I didn't even have any bullets for the gun."

Police said they found two watches, a ring and several other items belonging to the Cutts stuffed in Newton's shirt. He was held by juvenile authorities.

3 Receive Probation In Burglary Of Home

LISBON — Three defendants in the burglary of the home of Lawrence Wolfgange on lower Elkton Rd. Feb. 25 received probation Wednesday afternoon before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzrd.

Mary F. Walker, 20, of New Springfield R. D. 1, and Marshall E. Patracci, 24, and Charles W. Cooper, 22, both of Youngstown, were placed on five years probation.

Both men pleaded guilty after they were apprehended by Youngstown police but Miss Walker was found guilty in a jury trial May 11 then requested probation.

They must make restitution for damages to the Wolfgange home and be of good behavior and report to Chief Probation Officer Richard Rose, the court stipulated.

Burglaries Force Closing Of Church

CHICAGO (AP) — A Roman Catholic church has been forced to close its doors, except during hours of services, because of a wave of burglaries.

The Rev. John Cunningham, assistant pastor of St. Thomas the Apostle Church, said Wednesday the doors were being locked at the suggestion of police who said they were unable to protect the church throughout the day and evening.

Three times within the last two weeks the church alms box and votive light offering boxes have been broken into.

Wife Killed, Husband Hurt As Car Hits Pole

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. May Rose, 65, of Carlton, Mich., was injured fatally and her husband, Fred, 56, was seriously injured when their car hit an aluminum utility pole on the Detroit-Toledo Expressway near Manhattan Boulevard, police reported early today.

The couple were on their way to visit their daughter, Mrs. Margaret Dickens of suburban Oregon.

Irondale Driver Draws $50 Fine

Edward G. Tice, 26, of Irondale R. D. 1 was fined a total of $50 and costs and given a suspended six-month County Jail term Wednesday in Municipal Court when he pleaded guilty to driving a car without an operator's license and using illegal registration.

Tice, cited at 5:54 yesterday morning on Market St. by Patrolman R. B. Pyle, told Acting Judge Paul Tobin the State Highway Patrol told him he cannot qualify for a driver's license because he can neither read nor write. He admitted using plates from a 1952 Chevrolet on a 1953 Dodge which he purchased Aug. 10.

The court advised Tice he will serve the suspended jail sentence if he ever is nabbed again for driving without a license. Tice said he has been driving "four or five months" without an operator's permit, although he knew it was illegal.

Federal Aid Sought For Lisbon Quiz

Prosecutor Waits State Evidence On Numbers Printers

County Prosecutor G. William Brokaw today was awaiting additional evidence from Ohio Attorney General Mark McElroy for preparation of indictments against owners of the Lisbon Salesbook Co., where large quantities of numbers books were seized in a raid Wednesday.

McElroy was slated to confer with U.S. Attorney General Robert Kennedy for investigation of out-of-state customers of the Lisbon firm, which reportedly did a $150,000 a year business supplying the "bug books" to numbers racketeers.

McElroy and two aides, along with Prosecutor Brokaw and Lisbon Police Chief Dalton Pike, yesterday morning raided the W. Maple St. company where thousands of the books along with printing equipment were confiscated.

Martin and Isadore Sufrin of Pittsburgh, owners of the firm which McElroy termed the third largest numbers racket supplier in the country, face fines of up to $1,000 and jail terms of 1-3 years under the state's new anti-gambling measures.

The attorney general said the federal government would be asked to investigate the firm's customers in Eastern states and to "establish a link between federal and Ohio authorities in our common fight against gambling."

Brokaw said today indictments against the firm will be prepared when McElroy supplies him with needed information in connection with the criminal charges. The September Grand Jury is to convene Tuesday.

Brokaw said he needs official proof of the ownership of the firm, which the state officials can obtain from corporation records at Columbus. He said the first move is up to McElroy.

The prosecutor stated, "I am not seeking publicity in this case." He said he was not notified of the intended raid until mid-morning, and then only at the insistence of Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard, who issued a search warrant to McElroy only minutes before the raid at 10:30.

Brokaw said he had no evidence of illegal activities at the firm, although he said it was understood throughout town that numbers slips had been printed. He pointed out that such an operation was legal up to Friday when the new law went into effect.

Two men and four women were working at the firm when John Gleason, assistant attorney general, entered the door and called out, "Everybody stand still; this is a raid." No one was arrested, but the names of all were taken.

Martin Sufrin yesterday declared the firm was a legitimate manufacturer of sales books for department stores and confectionery stores across the nation.

"Our firm has legal opinions concerning the manufacture of the books, and we plan to file suit against McElroy," he stated.

The numbers books are 2-x-6-inch pads of 50 numbered sheets in triplicate with two carbon papers in the bottom.

The sheets have red ruled spaces for the date at the top with a blank rectangle which Gleason said is used to mark the number bet by the player. The bottom of the sheets are also red ruled and have a five-digit number and a space for "total sales."

The player gets the top sheet, the numbers' writer the second and the numbers' house the bottom sheet, Gleason explained.

Asked how proof could be established that these slips were used for numbers, Prosecutor Brokaw said that expert witnesses would be able to identify them as "bug" slips.

McElroy credited Gleason with developing the information which led to the raid, saying Gleason learned of the operations of the firm about 18 months ago while investigating George Markos,

'BUG BOOK' BUILDING. County Prosecutor William Brokaw sits on a pile of printed forms seized Wednesday morning as numbers slips at the Lisbon Salesbook Co. at Lisbon. With Brokaw at the stacks of uncut forms are Paul Blackburn of Columbiana, special state investigator, and John W. Knox Township Plans Fire Protection Levy

Knox Township trustees have indicated to the County Election Board they plan to submit a resolution asking a vote on a new current expense levy at the Nov. 7 general election to provide funds for fire protection.

Ford's Next In Line For UAW Talks

Reuther Says He'll Work Out Details Of GM Pact First

DETROIT (AP) — Walter P. Reuther will go calling on the Ford Motor Co. as soon as he settles on the details of the United Auto Workers' agreement with General Motors.

"Ford is the next door I will knock on," the UAW president said late Wednesday after recessing his talks with GM until today.

Reuther indicated he was confident of making a final settlement with GM that will set the pattern for Ford and Chrysler. He said there is no pressure now in the GM negotiations because, "There is general agreement in all important areas" of a national economic settlement on wages and extra benefits.

GM Vice President Louis G. Seaton agreed the company and union were in essential agreement in the national economic area.

The GM-UAW negotiations are continuing under a strike truce. A shutdown of GM plants was averted Wednesday by extending the deadline to 10 a.m. Monday. The union's contract with Ford and Chrysler were extended to next Wednesday midnight.

Nearly all of GM's 325,000 hourly workers stayed on the job. But there was a rash of wildcat strikes at seven GM plants. Reuther predicted operations at the company's 129 plants will be normal and workers will be "elated when they learn the details of the economic package."

Reuther told newsmen that he was "not free to discuss the details" of the union's agreement with GM on broad economic issues.

Reds Blast 4th Test

U.S. Considers Neutrals' Plea For Peace Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration was expected today to give a sympathetic response to an appeal from 25 neutral nations for U.S.-Soviet negotiations to save the world from "the horror of nuclear war."

But officials here said the aggressive Soviet attitude on critical Berlin issues—dramatized by Soviet persistence in exploding nuclear weapons test devices in the atmosphere—discourages hope that negotiations under present conditions can make much progress.

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission announced Wednesday night that the Soviet Union had exploded early Wednesday, Washington time, its fourth nuclear test device since last Friday. Evidence picked up by U.S. monitors put the site of the blast as being east of Stalingrad. The AEC said it was about 1,600 miles west of the area of Semipalatinsk in which the three previous explosions occurred.

The force was described by the AEC as being in the low to intermediate range, which means it was far below the 100-million-ton superbomb which Soviet Premier Khrushchev has threatened to build.

Before the AEC made its announcement on the fourth Soviet blast, Secretary of Welfare Abraham Ribicoff reported radioactive fallout from the new Soviet tests had been detected in Alaska. He said analysis showed radiation levels at 35 times the average daily levels for August. Dr. Luther L. Terry, surgeon general of the health service, said there was no immediate health danger from the fallout.

Congressional leaders said the prevailing opinion within the Kennedy administration is that the new Soviet tests are aimed at developing antimissile missiles. And they predicted the United States will fire an underground nuclear blast within two weeks to test a small battlefield warhead and the effectiveness of new detection equipment.

Units Could Face Call In Few Weeks

Can Free Regular Army Divisions For Overseas Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army appeared today to be wheeling four National Guard infantry and armored divisions into position to free regular Army divisions for movement overseas, if the Berlin crisis becomes acute.

The four Guard divisions — the 26th Infantry of Massachusetts, the 28th Infantry of Pennsylvania, the 32nd Infantry of Wisconsin and the 49th Armored of Texas—Wednesday were put on notice that they face possible calls to federal duty. Such a call could come in a matter of weeks.

Along with 475 lesser Guard and Reserve units in 46 states and the District of Columbia these divisions were given a top priority label by the Army.

"They will begin an intensified training program immediately in order to increase their combat readiness," the Army said.

The divisions and the individual units, combat and support types, will be reinforced from the ready reserve pool to bring them to near full strength.

Total strength of these formations now stands at about 76,000. Some 52,000 ready reservists will be assigned or attached to them to fill out their ranks.

Orders to put these measures into effect went out Wednesday and Army officials estimated the four divisions could be brought close to full strength in about 15

Ohio Guard, Reserve Units Are Tapped

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army Wednesday tapped these National Guard and Reserve units in Ohio as top-priority groups to receive an intensified training program, including one additional weekend drill period each month, in preparation for a possible call-up:

National Guard

Army Reserve

299th Ordnance Co., Sandusky; 181st Ordnance Co., Delaware; 480th Ordnance Co., Cincinnati; 754th Transportation Co., Dayton; 812th Signal Co., Cincinnati, and 4th Bn of 36th Field Artillery, Akron.

Also designated as priority groups, not receiving additional personnel at this time but their training being intensified, are these Ohio units:

NATIONAL GUARD—131st Medical Co., Xenia; H1. and Hq. Detachment, 37th Ordnance Bn, Cleveland, and 137th Military Police Co., Toledo.

Judge Hits Lack Of Enforcement

A Wellsville tavern operator was acquitted of selling intoxicants to a minor at a hearing Wednesday in Juvenile Court but the judge lashed at lack of enforcement in the East Liverpool and Wellsville areas by the State Liquor Department and called on the governor to do something about it.

Judge Louis Tobin added he believes the youth was sold drinks.

Bennie Corbisello, operator of the Bolera Cafe on Main St., was found not guilty of contributing to the boy's delinquency after the state failed to prove the youth had bought liquor at the spot.

FIFTEEN witnesses took the stand with Asst. Prosecutor Joseph Barronzzi handling the state's case and the law firm of Bettis, Coe & Heagley defending Corbisello.

In finding Corbisello not guilty, Judge Tobin said:

"In reviewing the evidence in this case, the court is convinced of several things. First, the court is convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the young man in question, Kenneth Thomas, as well as other boys, have been sold intoxicating liquors in the Bolero Cafe, and the court wishes to censure the Department of Liquor Control, since it was upon their request that this hearing was continued so that they could be here. No one from the Liquor Control Board appeared or contacted this court, stating they would not appear.

"SECOND, IT is the opinion of this court, based upon the testimony in this case, that there has been a lack of enforcement in the Wellsville and East Liverpool areas.

"The court, therefore, intends to send a copy of this opinion to the Governor of the state of Ohio, and does hereby request that he instruct the Department of Liquor Control for a strict enforcement of the laws at it relates to minors, against all cafes and particularly against the Bolero Cafe.

"The court finds from the evidence there is practically no pretense made in behalf of the department or on behalf of the innkeepers mentioned here and par-

Chester Gets Stiff Control Of Refuse

Council Also Enacts One-Way Traffic On 2 Street Areas

Final approval was given by Chester Council Wednesday night to stricter regulations on disposal of trash and garbage and for one-way traffic flow on two streets.

The new street regulation provides for northbound traffic only on 1st St. between Indiana and Pennsylvania Aves. and 2nd St. between Montana Ave. and Church Alley.

A previously approved stipulation providing for westbound traffic only on Orion Ave. for a short distance near Pyramus St. was revoked.

Councilman W. F. Bishop said residents of the area had asked him to request Council to allow two-way traffic on Orion Ave.

The new trash and garbage disposal regulation provides that only the authorized private hauler, engaged by Council, can collect inside the city limits, and prohibits unsanitary accumulation of garbage or disposal on streets or other areas. It forbids burning of trash without the permission of police or firemen.

Council instructed City Clerk Roy Cashdollar to request the Monongehela Power Co. to move a street light at Phaeton Ave. Ext. and W. Carolina Ave. Ext. to a site in front of the homes of Donald Thiess and Joseph Judy a short distance away. The move would provide light for more homes, it was reported.

At the request of Councilman Donald Hissam, Council authorized the Chester fire department to utilize 4th St. between Caro-

Gun Victim Reported Improved At Hospital

The first improvement in the condition of Harry (Bud) Grim, 30, of Wellsville, shot while in an auto near Knoxville Aug. 27, has been reported by City Hospital.

Chester Park Lot Eyed For Post Office

Sale of a portion of the Chester City Park for use as a site of a new post office was being considered today by the Park Commission following presentation of the proposal at a meeting Wednesday night.

A Post Office Department representative discussed with the commission the sale of a 100-x-160-foot section of the park along 5th St. for a building site. An offer of $10,000 was made for the property.

The commission agreed to study the proposal and was to confer with Atty. James Jordan, who drew up the exchange of deed for the park to the city.

Harold Dickey, chairman of the commission, said the group wants to examine all the legal points in such transaction and to determine public opinion on the proposal.

The Post Office Department has been interested for some time in providing new facilities in Chester.

The present post office is located on Carolina Ave. at 5th St. in the National Church Supply Co. building.

Tentative plans would call for erection of an 80-x-42-foot building to be leased by the Post Office Department.

A number of other sites have been under consideration, but the park area was given a selection priority because of its accessibility to the center of the city.

Dickey said should a building be erected at the park, the football field would be re-located.

New Orleans Set For School Test

By The Associated Press

The gradual, orderly spread of public school integration in the South this year reached a crucial phase at New Orleans today while there were rumblings of discontent at Chicago and New Rochelle, N.Y.

The increase in the number of Negroes enrolled with white pupils in the South was relatively small but was considered significant because such large cities as Dallas, Tex., and Atlanta, Ga., were included.

President Kennedy said in Washington that peaceful integration was a "dramatic demonstration of U.S. progress in improving the position of American Negroes."

He congratulated Little Rock and Dallas and communities in Arkansas, Texas, Florida, Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee for admitting Negroes to previously white schools without incident. Earlier he praised Atlanta for its quiet integration of four high schools.

New Orleans police erected barricades a block away around the six schools scheduled for integration. The entire police force was placed on a 12-hour day, some 120 U.S. deputy marshals were quartered at Camp LeRoy Johnson ready to assist if needed, and the FBI kept a watchful eye on the situation.

Only two of the New Orleans schools—McDonogh 19 and William Frantz—planned to admit Negro pupils immediately. The New Orleans Parish School Board said less than 10 Negro first graders would enter the other four schools before Sept. 15. The actual date of entry was not announced.

Eighteen Negro children attended previously white elementary schools in Dallas Wednesday, attracting little attention. Police found traffic control their sole duty at what had been the nation's largest segregated school system.

Stratton Dam Dedication Will Be Held On Sept. 28

Dedication of the $40 million Stratton dam and locks will be held Thursday, Sept. 28, with the dedicatory address being given by Secretary of the Army Elvis J. Stahr Jr.

Details of the program were announced today by Emerson V. Wood, executive manager of the Steubenville Chamber of Commerce which is sponsoring the program. Cooperating in the program are the Pittsburgh District Army Corps of Engineers and the Pittsburgh Coal Exchange.

The program will begin at noon with a luncheon at the Masonic Temple in Steubenville and will be followed by a parade of boats from Steubenville to Stratton when Stahr will give the principal address at 3:30 p. m.

The Dravo Corp. of Pittsburgh, general contractor for the new dam, pulled the last section of cofferdam last week, signaling completion of the project which has been underway for over two years.

Operation of the new dam is the first completed step in the 20-year program of the Corps of Engineers to reconstruct and modernize the entire Ohio River navigation system.

Located in the heart of the upper Ohio River Valley with its varied industrial concentration, the new dam has replaced obsolete structures at Dams 7, 8, and 9 which formerly were located at Midland, Newell and New Cumberland.

It will speed river traffic through this section, cutting as much as four hours from the travel time of the average tow.

'Carla' Expected To Hit Yucatan, Western Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)— Hurricane Carla crept toward the Gulf of Mexico today as if unable to decide which way to head—Mexico to the northwestward or the U.S. Gulf Coast to the north and east.

Forecasters at the U.S. Weather Bureau in Miami said Carla was expected to brush both northeast Yucatan and extreme western Cuba in entering the Yucatan Channel that leads into the Gulf.

The storm, packing winds up to 75 miles per hour over a small area near the center, was still in the process of developing nearing the channel on a poky 8 m.p.h. northwest to north-northwest course.

Weathermen expected slow intensification, with course and speed maintained, as Carla entered the southeastern Gulf of Mexico.

The Caribbean-born hurricane was located at 5 a.m. 50 miles northeast of Cozumel Island, off the Yucatan Peninsula's northeast tip, 110 miles southwest of Cuba's western tip and 500 miles southwest of Miami.

Gale force winds ranged 250 miles northeast and 100 miles southeast of the storm's center. Tides which may rise to five to seven feet, heavy rains and dangerous winds of gale to possibly hurricane force were anticipated for the northeast tip of Yucatan and extreme western Cuba during Carla's passage through the channel.

UOVDC Session Sept. 20

3-State Highway Meeting Planned For Steubenville

State Highway Department officials from Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania will meet Sept. 20 at Steubenville with civic leaders from a six-county Ohio Valley area to discuss current plans for north-south and east-west throughway improvements.

Arranged by the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council, the conference will follow a noon luncheon at the Steubenville Country Club. First plans for the session were announced today by Atty. Francis H. Lang, chairman of the UOVDC transportation committee.

"The three-state meeting has been arranged so our council can keep informed about highway improvements which we believe will have great influence on economic and community growth within this region," Atty. Lang said. "We also hope to learn how we can assist the highway departments in implementing their plans."

Sixty are expected from the UOVDC area, which covers Columbiana, Belmont, Harrison and Jefferson Counties in Ohio and Hancock and Brooke Counties in West Virginia.

The highway officials invited to the conference will be on the division level. For instance, William McKenna, head of the Division 11 office at New Philadelphia, will be the Ohio spokesman.

Discussions will center around advance plans and construction progress on east-west Routes 30, 22, 43 and 70 — old U.S. 40. The state officials also will discuss north-south routes 21, 7 and the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway between East Liverpool and Ashtabula. Route 2 in West Virginia and the Erie to West Virginia Freeway in Pennsylvania also will be on the agenda.

It will be the second such regional meeting on highways sponsored by the UOVDC. In June 1960, the civic leaders conferred at Weirton with highway department heads from each of the three states.

Wife Of Policeman Employed At Firm

LISBON — Among employes at the Lisbon Salesbook Co. when it was raided Wednesday as a numbers book printing operation was Mrs. Sadie Patterson, 123 E. Pine St., wife of assistant Police Chief Roy Patterson.

Mrs. Patterson, married only recently to the officer, had been laid off by the firm for a while, but was recalled and was one of six workers at the plant yesterday.

Evidence uncovered by Gleason led to a raid on an Appliance supplier of gambling equipment which in turn was supplied by the Lisbon firm McElroy said.

Nothing could be done then because of lax state laws against manufacturer of gambling equipment, he said.

Gleason and Robert Blackburn of Columbiana, special investigator, kept the Lisbon firm under surveillance for six weeks prior to yesterday's raid.

days. Infantry divisions total 13,700 men and armored divisions 14,600 men when all spaces are filled.

When asked if the four divisions will be called into active service, one spokesman said "it depends on the world situation."

The Army now is building three regular Army training divisions into combat shape. That would give the United States six Army and two Marine divisions, now based inside the country, for movement abroad if needed to bolster the Western defense line in Europe.

Five U.S. infantry and armored divisions now are arrayed in West Germany and a small force of 6,500 is in Berlin.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is reported to have asked the Army if it could be in position to send six divisions abroad by mid-November.

If a decision is made to reinforce the troops facing the Soviets in the critical weeks ahead, the Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Texas Guard divisions would replace regular division in the strategic reserve within the continental United States.

There they would receive more rigorous training and would be available for use on the European front, if necessary, or to cope with other troubles which might break out elsewhere.

Call-up of the four Guard divisions would increase U.S. ground strength to 18 Army divisions, plus three Marine.

A Challenge On The Local Level

Atty. Gen. Mark W. McElroy has lost little time in demonstrating to Columbiana County residents the powerful weapon that enforcement agencies now possess in the new Ohio anti-gambling laws.

He quoted the law in preparing to follow up on Wednesday's raid on a Lisbon firm which he says is a large producer of numbers slips.

In an editorial on Sept. 1, The Review commented as follows in referring to the tough new laws:

". . .There will be no excuse for the existence of organized gambling in Ohio. Under the new statutes there will be no such thing as innocent participation in commercial games of chance.

"If it exists, it will be because someone is falling down on the job, either deliberately or unwittingly.

"If organized gambling continues anywhere in Ohio, it will signify general disinterest in sound community life.

"The legislature has provided the weapons for waging war against organized crime. But the mere existence of weapons does not guarantee victory. That can be had only by diligent use of the weapons."

Atty. Gen. McElroy and his staff have sounded a clearcut challenge with Wednesday's raid. It is now up to enforcement agencies in individual communities to follow through with a continuous war against gambling.

With the element of surprise often necessary for the best results, raids by state agencies fit into the over-all picture. Even more desirable, however, are raids at the local level.

Honest community government can get no greater boost than that which comes from the knowledge that local enforcement agencies are ever on the alert against gambling and other undesirable operations.

Beware Of The Fallout

If we were laboratory mice at Oak Ridge, resumption of nuclear testing wouldn't bother us. We'd be cheering President Kennedy's decision to keep abreast of the Russians.

A geneticist working for the Atomic Energy Commission says we can't be mutated nearly as much as the AEC previously had estimated we can be. His name is William L. Russell, and opinions like his are the stuff of red-hot human controversy.

They are part of the fallout in a propaganda explosion that has us groggy. We don't feel like cheering.

Right now, of course, the presence of radioactive particles in the air after nuclear explosions is spoken of officially as almost a blessing because the United States itself is going to resume nuclear testing.

For the last few days, however, radioactive particles from resumption of Russian testing had been anything but an official blessing, because the U.S. government was leading a worldwide shriek of indignation about it. This sort of thing needs to be understood for what it is—propaganda.

FALLOUT in the propaganda war is more dangerous at this moment than fallout from nuclear testing is likely to be.

The Soviet Union resumed nuclear testing, it said, because it knew the United States was getting ready to resume nuclear testing. This, of course, was denied.

The United States actually was getting ready to resume nuclear testing, though, because it now says it will be ready to run the first tests before the end of this month in laboratories and underground tunnels, which take years to prepare.

Sooner or later, either the United States or the Soviet Union would resume nuclear testing; that was certain. The Soviet Union, which may never have stopped underground testing, finally made the break on above-ground testing, to the relief of all interested parties in the United States.

The lid is off. Russia, which refused to ban testing, then led the squawk against it in the last decade, now is testing again at a stepped-up pace.

Everybody can start atomic testing now.

The French can blast off. So can the Israelis. And the Red Chinese. One day, the clever Japanese will make the biggest bang for the least money. The West Germans will get into the act by virtue of their reputation as the world's most ingenious designers. Italy will have a nuclear bomb. Some of the new countries in Africa will figure out a way to get one.

NUCLEAR BLASTING will become so popular that even the British will get back into the swim. And by that time it won't even be safe for a mouse at Oak Ridge under the care of geneticist Russell, who says radioactive mutations aren't as serious as they first were believed to be.

A ban on nuclear blasting then would be as meaningful as a ban on polluting public waterways—and as hard to enforce. But at this instant in history, no one is ready for even the pretense of a ban. There is too much yet to be known about nuclear fission and fusion.

There is, moreover, the unknowable condition of all the nuclear weapons already in existence—whether or not they would go off with the cataclysmic bang built into them. When World War II began, torpedoes that had been in cold storage were sent to sea for submarine warfare and hundreds had lost their bang when it was time to fire them.

THE UNITED STATES hardly could wait for the Soviet Union to resume nuclear testing. It was itching to do the same thing. What triggered the Russian decision is unknown, but the United States is thankful for it.

Naturally, the worriers, pacifists, Cloud-Niners and Communist sympathizers deplore the resumption by this country, and it's going to be hard on generations of unborn mice. But the mice won't know about it, unless it kills them, and then they won't know what killed them, which puts them 2 up on the human race.

Not only could all of us be killed, but we could die a thousand deaths while waiting for the fallout from both nuclear and propaganda blasting. One's as bad as the other.

The nuclear fallout can cause mutations of the body and the propaganda fallout can cause mutations of the intellect. And of the two, mutations of the intellect may do us in first.

Park Partnership

Chester's City Park and its community building and other facilities have been the result of the hard work and generosity of a varied group of individuals and civic organizations.

Since 1954 when the 12-acre tract was obtained by the volunteer firemen and later turned over to the community, a considerable amount of time and energy has been spent on clearing the land, providing a football field and lights, erecting the community building and completing a number of other projects.

Besides actual labor volunteered or provided at reduced rates, residents and businessmen have contributed money through the quarterly donation plan or other grants.

Tonight begins a three-day bazaar to obtain more money to complete the community building and other park projects.

Chester residents and others who are interested in the park or those who simply like a summer night's entertainment replete with concessions and music should visit the bazaar.

It will be a good way to cool off for a good cause, while becoming a partner in an improved park.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

New auto models are out and show many improvements. If this could be said of drivers, it would be wonderful.

Trend to small cars continues. This is also true of small down payments. There are few radical changes, except that some trunk compartments are built to take fewer "dents in depth" from car behind.

Rear - end collisions clearly show safety belts are needed on the baggage but nothing has been done about this in 1962 cars.

Motors are smaller, the idea being to reduce gas consumption between accidents. There are many new gadgets but Detroit is yet to provide a push-button Red Cross kit on dash.

No designer has come out with a "dispenser" type fender container which will make a new fender automatically fall into place when the old one has become dull or ripped off.

In new models, bumpers are placed further inside the car body because of conclusion they don't give any protection in modern high-speed traffic. This is the year of "Auto That Fits the Garage" and in only a few models are wedges, crowbars and carpentry tools necessary to get the flivver under cover.

Many models give more mileage, some 40 miles per gallon. They are popular, due to fact few people any longer believe economy at a pumping station means a loss of prestige.

Long-range lubrication is newest feature of 1962 cars, with some guaranteed to run 30,000 miles without lubrication. This means little to women drivers. They seldom think about greasing the car anyhow but the men think it a good idea.

Speedometers remain about the same, as they are little used except by elderly drivers. Brakes, despite rumors, are not OPTIONAL, the industry refusing to cater to the millions of drivers who never use them.

The trend to push-button windows continues but the question, "What do I do to close one in rain or open one on a hot day when the buttons don't work?" remains unanswered except in a way that encourages profanity at service stations.

Best news is that "fin" changes are few, as the craze to make an auto look like a jet plane has died down. Drivers get the car into the air just as easy without them.

"BETTER RED THAN DEAD!" is the slogan being spread by Commies all over the world, not without the support of some safety-first addicts. But the free world could come up with some more inspiring ones, as for instance, "Better pallbearers than concentration-camp sharers," "Better faith abounding than table pounding," "Better death as a free man than life as a bended-knee man" and "Better hell-fire than barbed wire." Others could include:

Better a green grave than Moscow's slave.

Better "For freedom he dies" than "Under hobnailed boots he lies."

Lines revised after summer on crowded beaches:

Mother, may I go in to swim?
If you're nuts enough, my daughter;
Grab yourself a hickory limb

Stevenson Angers Union Chiefs

By Victor Riesel

Adlai Stevenson has himself a battalion of new opponents. He ought not to take them lightly. They are influential—for they are national labor leaders. They would like to drive him from the inner circles of the White House and end his advisory relationship with John Kennedy or have him named Abassador to the Faroe Islands where the fog is always thickest.

Victor Riesel

They blame him and the new young men in his coterie for weakening their influence with the White House on international matters.

For the moment, these national union chiefs are angry older men because Ambassador Stevenson vetoed the appointment of a labor chief to the United Nations delegation to the make-or-break General Assembly session opening soon.

Word is that President Kennedy flatly promised AFL-CIO President George Meany that he would appoint him to the U.N.

WHEN STEVENSON heard of this, the ambassador told Mr. Kennedy that he did not want Meany. It is fact that there are highly placed labor leaders who believe that Stevenson sought Walter Reuther.

However, I cannot corroborate this first hand. But it is fact that Stevenson told the President that he desired professionals in the diplomatic field.

And it is fact that John Kennedy, feeling he could not override his own ambassador, later explained his failure to name Meany by saying: "What can I do with Stevenson, he kept insisting he wanted technicians."

What angers the union men is the absence of a labor leader on the U.N. delegation appointed by a Democratic president they helped elect.

They are saying quite bitterly they did better with Dwight Eisenhower on this front.

Under the Republicans Mr. Meany served twice at the U.N., and AFL-CIO Vice President George Harrison of the railway clerks, had one such term. And they don't say this gently either.

Nor does this antagonism to Stevenson end at the U.N. Deep in labor's sanctums, it is being said that the "Adlai bloc" has embarrassed the U.S. in Latin America.

THEY STILL BLAME Mr. Stevenson for rushing to Washington and preventing that second U.S. air strike against Castro's airports and army "that night" just as the Fidelista militia were beginning to desert to the invaders.

And they excoriate the "Adlai bloc" for some unreported events which occurred at the inter-American conference at Punta del Este, Uruguay.

First the labor men say that the Stevenson group fought the appointment of labor members to the Alliance for Progress delegation. Then they blame his group for the White House policy which kept the U.S. delegation sitting quietly during three days of insults to Mr. Kennedy and our country.

This came when "Che" used the snide Spanish phrase "A confesion de parte, releve de prueba," while referring to JFK. This means "when a crime is being confessed, there is no need to present evidence."

-:-

THE U.S. LABOR MEN, who have been working with the Latinos for years, were aghast. They know that this is the type of insult to a President and land which no Latin American would tolerate.

All eyes turned to the U.S. delegation. Everybody expected a walkout or retort. But it was obvious that our delegation was not going to irritate the Cubans. The Latinos felt we had deserted honor and had lost face.

Later, when the final declaration was being wrought, the leader of the Peruvian delegation proposed a simple expression of loyalty to the system of free and regular elections. He wanted this as a condition for membership in the Alliance for Progress.

FINALLY, there was to be a reference to labor. The words "free democratic labor" were struck from the final declaration, mostly at the insistence of the pro-Castro block. The U.S. delegation just let it go by. They did not fight for it.

The labor men reported this back to their national headquarters in Washington — where this was quietly called appeasement.

The responsibility is being heaped squarely on Adlai Stevenson's influence.

All is quiet on this front for the moment. But this feud will be a loud one shortly. If not in public, then inside the White House.

Letters To The Editor

The other day at 4 o'clock in the morning. I was awakened by loud and boisterous talking.

Being surrounded by a rather astounding number of taverns, this was not unusual for our neighborhood. Six youths about 15 to 16 years of age were assembled across the street from my home. They were discussing current world problems very emphatically at 4 in the morning.

Surprising? No, not at all, very commonplace, and we accept it as a sign of the times. Is it good for our youth to have such freedom? Don't their parents care where their children are? Should we wonder then why we have terrible auto accidents and other undesirable incidents?

Control must start in the home. The parent or head of the household must exercise authority. A teen-ager does not resent authority when it is applied in the right way.

We wonder how many parents have urged their boys to join the Boy Scouts? This is a program where a boy learns teamwork. He becomes self-confident. He explores the realm of adventure and can find his vocation for life in his study of the different merit badges that the program offers.

To make America strong, we must build, we must serve and we will achieve. Decide now, Americans, which will it be: Must we build bigger prisons or bigger and better youth activities?

America's strength lies in its people. How true these words are. And a great many of America's people are of the ages 8 to 18. These are the formative years. What a boy learns and comes in contact with may well determine the type of adult he will turn out to be. Character building and physical fitness are vitally needed.

Scouting offers such a worthwhile program. Today's youngsters are in our hands but a short time. What they learn is entirely up to their leaders. Many leaders are needed now as our programs continues to grow. Would you like to help? Invest in America's future. Build now, serve now and we will certainly achieve.

ROBERT GRAY
536 Carolina Ave.
Chester

Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never harm me.

True this is a childish statement, but it makes a lot of sense even in adult life. Another statement I recall from my childhood was "If the shoe fits, put it on and wear it, even if it pinches a little."

If we pinch a pig in the right spot, he will squeal. This goes too for any dumb animal. And, of course, it's true even a man will squeal if we pinch him in the right spot.

It is only common sense that we all must endure a few pinches as we go through life. But the question is, Can we be adult enough to not squeal like a pig when we are caught in a squeeze and the pinch begins to hit home? . . .

Editor's Note — With the feeling that both sides have been given an opportunity to express their views, we are marking the Headley-Mangano case closed. It is our opinion that nothing would be gained from a further discussion of the matter in the Letters To The Editor column.

I am happy to know that the letter to the editor written by Mrs. Delores. Headley (my wife) brought so much joy to certain readers. It's always a little easier to bear your troubles if you know it has benefitted someone. Strange as it may sound, my wife's letter had a different effect on different people. She received many complimentary letters and personal visits and phone calls. But as they say, what medicine will cure one will kill another. . . .

I still stand fast that our home is our castle in spite of disgreements expressed in another letter to The Review. However, I do agree with the author of the letter on one point. If we have nothing spiritual, or of human value inside our homes, they then become an empty shell. It takes much more than money to make happiness or to fill a house full of joy.

WILLIAM E. HEADLEY
R. D. 1, Wellsville

In answer to the letter in Monday's Review: I don't know of anyone in East Liverpool and the district whose name has been in the court news more than that of Mangano.

Therefore, I don't think William Mangano should say anything about anyone else.

The 'Shadow Cabinet'

By David Lawrence

U.S. Parties Might Study British Idea

It seems strange, after studying at first hand the way they prepare for a changeover in government in Britain, to come back to America and read dispatches from California reporting that the big story in politics there is whether former Vice President Nixon should run for governor of the state next year.

David Lawrence

What seems even stranger are the oft-repeated comments in political circles that New York's governor—Nelson Rockefeller — will try to become the Republican presidential candidate in 1964.

According to the British system, neither Mr. Nixon nor Mr. Rockefeller would get the slightest consideration for the party's nomination unless they were members of the national legislative body in positions of leadership.

What's more, cabinet secretaries would not be appointed to head the big departments of government unless they, too, were members of Parliament.

Talking at length with one of the leading members of Britain's Labor party—which at present is known as the "opposition"—this writer was able to get a penetrating comparison of the American and British systems.

The member interviewed not only makes frequent trips to America and is well acquainted with many members of our Congress but he is likely to have an important post in the national government if the Conservative party is defeated at the polls in the next election.

Basically, as analyzed for this correspondent, neither of the two systems is as effective as it' ought to be, but each has certain advantages over the other.

In Britain the members of an opposition party in Parliament do not have the advantage of representation as minority members of legislative committees and thus do not have direct access to information about the operations of the executive branch as is the case in America.

On the other hand, in London they have set up what is called a "shadow cabinet." It maintains an intimate personal relationship with the cabinet of the other party, and there is a custom that information on important matters should be shared informally. It's a kind of reciprocal courtesy on a personal basis.

Again and again the party in power has offered to parallel the so-called "bipartisan" conferences held in the United States between the chief executive and members of the opposite party in Congress.

THIS INFORMALITY has been consistently refused, the theory being that it would impose a certain responsibility on the opposition to keep silent when it might be appropriate in the public interest to speak out.

In its own way and through its personal contacts, therefore, the "shadow cabinet" collects its information. It sets up a member or two for each big department with a staff of assistant secretaries. The arrangement is such that at any moment the "shadow cabinet" can become the real cabinet, and not a day's time is lost in the operations of the national government when there is a changeover.

All this, incidentally, is relatively new, having been started just after World War I, and the system is being constantly improved.

In America, on the other hand, despite all the sincere and earnest efforts at cooperation made between an outgoing and incoming administration, as was the case last autumn, the opportunity to learn in three months about the actual operation of the government is scant.

A "shadow cabinet" is in training in Britain for three years or more, and many of its members have previously served in the national government.

The opposition party itself in England selects the "shadow cabinet." The record of each man is checked by the party leaders, and often a member of the "shadow cabinet" may train first for one post and then another. Final appointment is by the new prime minister, who is not always bound to select the designated member, though he does in the main.

IT SEEMS LOGICAL that men who aspire to the presidency of the United States should be members of Congress who either show by their speeches and statements that they are qualified to discuss subjects of national importance or are high-ranking members of important committees who—on the floor of the House or Senate or in those committees—carry on their interrogation of the other party.

To a degree this is done in committee sessions of Congress now but it is not organized on a party basis or necessarily participated in by party leaders.

All in all, it would seem that if either Gov. Rockefeller or former Vice President Nixon is aspiring to the presidency, each should be living in Washington and give up all thought of serving in a state office. They should be devoting themselves to a day-by-day study of the operations of the national government.

Their task would be to develop a group of leaders, consult with them, and give expression to national party policies. They could, of course, make frequent speeches throughout the country.

The American people would then have some assurance that the potential nominees were intimately acquainted with the operations of the national government and were not simply voicing opinions from a distance as they concentrated on local affairs.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY served in congress a long time but he never was chosen as leader of his party in either house. In 1960 Vice President Nixon and Sen. Lyndon Johnson, each having served his own party in a position of leadership, would logically have been named to head their respective party tickets if the British system were applied.

While there are many customs in the parliamentary practice in Britain that Americans would not like to see duplicated here, nevertheless the "shadow cabinet" idea is well worth serious study by both major parties in this country.

U.S. Grant III Quits As Head Of Civil War Group

CLINTON, N.Y. (AP) — Two members of the federal Civil War Centennial Commission, including the chairman, Ulysses S. Grant III, have resigned amid reports of friction within the commission over the demotion of its executive director.

Grant, grandson of the Union Army's Civil War commander, said Wednesday he had resigned because of the serious illness of his wife, the former Edith Root. Because of her illness, he said, he could not travel widely on commission business.

In Washington, the White House confirmed that Grant and Vice Adm. Stuart H. Ingersoll of the Naval War College had resigned from the commission. Pierre Salinger, press secretary, would neither make public their letters of resignation nor discuss their reasons.

Venire To Be Chosen For Driver's Hearing

Selection of the venire today will allow Bailiff Wilbert Taylor over a week in which to serve summonses on the prospective jurors, the judge pointed out.

Dawson was cited by the State Highway Patrol after his auto collided with a big earth hauler Aug. 9 at a freeway construction crossing just north of the city limits. Dawson pleaded innocent Aug. 15 and his counsel, Atty. George Aronson, filed the motion for the jury trial.

"It is particularly nauseating to this court, why anyone would be willing to risk the life and limb of boy under 18 years of age from the profit from a bottle of beer. That is exactly what these cafes are doing.

"IF THE BOY spent a dollar on beer he risks his life, which in the present case resulted in a criminal offense. That is no concern of the innkeepers nor any concern of the owner of the Bolero Cafe so long as the last cent is squeezed out of these boys.

"While the court is indignant about the entire matter and particularly indignant about the lack of enforcement by the Liquor Control Board, the sole question before this court was whether the defendant, Bennie Corbisello, committed acts tending to cause the delinquency of the boy by the sale of liquor. The state did not prove that beyond a reasonable doubt. In fact, the state did not prove this by a preponderance of the evidence. Therefore, the defendant was found not guilty, and was discharged."

Heat Remains Despite Localized Showers

Localized showers this morning were welcomed by farmers but city residents found little relief from the week-long heat wave that may see another 90-high today.

The city got possibly 0.25 inch of rain but the Stratton Dam reported only a trace while Dam 10 near Steubenville recorded a heavy rain of 1.25 inches.

No rain had been predicted before Saturday but there may be more showers this afternoon or tonight.

Meanwhile, the temperature and humidity soared after the early-morning showers and the Ohio weatherman said today's high may be 85 to 90 with tonight's low 65 to 70. The downtown had a low of 70 this morning and the dam reported 75 after a hot high of 89 Wednesday afternoon.

Mediation Resumes In Palestine Strike

EAST PALESTINE — Mediation talks resumed this morning at New Waterford between management of the Kenmar Manufacturing Co. and representatives of members of the United Construction Workers who went on strike Aug. 15.

About 126 workers began picketing the furniture plant over three weeks ago with the expiration of the former contract. A stalemate developed last week when the two sides could not agree on the length of an extension of the previous contract.

The company had been seeking a cut in wages to meet competition from Southern factories. Carl Dressing of Akron, U.S. mediator, is sitting in on the talks at the New Waterford Bank.

conjunction with the high - lift crest-gated dam, the larger measuring 110 feet wide by 1,200 feet long and the auxiliary chamber 110 feet wide and 600 feet long.

The larger lock will pass 24 standard barges and a towboat in a single locking. A double locking would have been required in the old structures. The auxiliary chamber is the same size as the single chamber in the old locks.

At normal pool, the large lock chamber will use more than 120 million gallons of water in a single day's operation since approximately 20 million gallons is required for each locking. By comparison, the city of Pittsburgh uses about 102 million gallons daily for all purposes.

Boat Owners File Claims

The Wellsville Boat Club and 30 small craft owners have filed claims amounting to between $3,000 and $5,000 against a Mississippi barge line for damage received from an accumulation of heavy, oil-like liquid in the Ohio River this summer.

Dick Spahr, commodore, said the club has filed a claim for tar and oil pollution of its ramps, dock and ski jump against the Greenville (Miss.) Towing Co.

Though the club's claim is less than $100, the small craft owners' claims range from $75 to $150 each, and those filed by owners of fiberglass boats may amount to more.

The Greenville firm turned over the insurance claims to Crawford & Crawford Co. of Youngstown, insurance adjustors, and an appraiser is due this week to inspect the boats and the docks.

Spahr said the club's equipment was coated with a thick accumulation of the black substance Aug. 5-6 due to spillage in pumping operations of the Greenville Co. at the Mississippi-Ohio Oil Co. terminal on the River Rd.

The Boat Club head pointed out that the minimum cost of removing the substance from the small craft and restoring the paint is $75. The cost may run higher for owners of fiberglass boats which are not covered by paint, but become stained with the oily substance.

Spahr said the tar-like liquid leaked into the river on the Aug. 5 weekend. The liquid apparently floated down the Ohio side and reached the Wellsville area in pools of various sizes.

Paul Harvey To Speak At Lady Elks' Event

Paul Harvey, noted newscaster, author and columnist, will appear here Oct. 7 under auspices of the East Liverpool Lady Elks.

He will speak, beginning at 8 p. m., at the Westgate School Auditorium.

Proceeds will be used for the work the Lady Elks do on behalf of cerebral palsy and other civic projects.

Mrs. J. B. Maley Jr. is general chairman for the program. Her committee includes Mrs. R. J. Lamborn, Mrs. John Eccleston, Mrs. Samuel Webber, Mrs. James Bowen, Mrs. William Dunlap and Mrs. Richard Heddleston.

Tickets are now on sale and may be obtained from Lady Elks and the following business establishments: Heimie's, Owen Hardware and Mabel's Beauty Shop in East Liverpool and The Teapot in Chester.

Harvey's rise has been meteoric since he was discharged from the Air Force in 1944 and headed for Chicago.

When he gave his famous obituary of President Roosevelt, starting with "A great tree has fallen . . ." one station received 10,000 requests for reprints.

Harvey has hammered hard at inadequacies in government and other fields, but always, he says, he has been fighting "not against men, but against ideas which destroy men."

His own way of life includes a pleasant home in a Chicago suburb, where he lives with his wife and their son, Paul Harvey II, called "Hoppy".

For several years the Harveys have had a farm for feeder cattle on the Mississippi River below St. Louis, named Reveille Ranch in honor of a pet cocker spaniel.

Harvey, however, has little time for the farm with his rigid schedule of broadcasts. He is at the news room at 7 in the morning to prepare his Monday through Friday program heard from 12 noon to 12:15 p. m. Central Time. His Sunday commentary is at 5:15.

PAUL HARVEY
Will Be At Westgate Oct. 7.

Among his books are "Remember These Things", "Autumn Of Liberty" and "The Rest Of The Story".

National Air Show Set At Beaver County Port

Plans for the first annual national air show to be held at the Beaver County Airport near Beaver Falls have been announced by Al Bennett, airport manager.

The show will be Saturday at 7 p. m. and Sunday at 2 p. m., sponsored jointly by the Civil Defense and Civil Air Patrol.

The National Air Show was featured on the CBS-TV Sportspectacular in February and received one of the highest ratings for this type of entertainment, Bennett said.

The show will feature aerobatic champion Hal Krier, who will send his plane through a series of aerobatic maneuvers. He hails from Wichita, Kan., and is nationally known for his precision flying.

Bill Sweet of Columbus, who was No. 1 announcer for the Cleveland air races, will describe the action and color.

Another highlight of the show will be the appearance of Johnny Skyrocket, billed as America's fastest private jet pilot. He was the first private pilot to obtain a license for a vampire jet and taught himself how to fly it.

Johnny will be on hand Saturday at 7 p. m. and after the night fire works he will board a 40-foot rocket to demonstrate the procedure on a simulated rocket launching.

An additional attraction will find the local Sky Divers in a series of spotlanding jumps. Pat Laughton will make a special jump to officially open the show both days.

Joe Rabassi, old-time barnstorming aviation enthusiast who heads the Joseph C. Rabassi Aviation Service, will perform at the controls of a Boeing Skyrocket Super Special Stearman in a series of smoke aerobatics.

Another attraction will be Miss Delores Lemely of Woodsfield, Ohio, who will stand on top of Hal Krier's plane while he sends it through a series of smoke rolls and loops.

Stark County Voters To Decide Levies Fate

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Stark County voters in November will decide the fate of two tax levies—one for a new county home for the aged and the other to finance classes for retarded children.

The county home would cost more than $2 million and would be financed by a 1.3-mill levy for two years. Yield from a two-tenths of a mill three-year levy would provide $150,000 to $175,000 a year for retarded children. County Commissioners Wednesday approved placement of the levies on the ballot.

Ruth J. Harmon To Be Bride Of Jack L. Hughey

Announcement has been made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Ruth Jean Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Harmon of Toronto, to Jack L. Hughey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Hughey, 219 W. 3rd St.

The open church wedding will take place Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church of Toronto with the Rev. Charles Dailey, pastor, officiating.

The bride-elect, a 1958 graduate of Toronto High School, was graduated this year from the Ohio Valley Hospital School of Nursing at Steubenville. She is employed in the medical-surgery unit.

Her fiance is a 1955 graduate of East Liverpool High School and works for the Crucible Steel Co. at Midland.

Miss Shelba Jean Miller And Gary E. Malone Wed

Miss Shelba Jean Miller wore an Alencon lace contour cap when she became the bride of Gary E. Malone the evening of Aug. 26 at 7:30 o'clock at the Oak Ridge United Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller of Wellsville R. D. 1 and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Malone, 1724 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville.

The altar was banked with bouquets of white mums and pink carnation, ferns, palms and seven-branch candelabra. Satin bows marked the family pews. Mrs. Catherine Leatherberry gave a half-hour recital of organ music. Miss Judith Dornick sang "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballerina-length gown of Alencon lace and tulle. The Basque bodice was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline, re-embroidered in pearls and sequins, and long, pointed sleeves.

A lace kerchief overskirt and medallion trim highlighted the bouffant skirt, with alternating tiers of lace and tulle for back accent. A fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to her bridal cap.

She carried a white Bible, the gift of her Sunday School teacher, Mrs. Ruth Frischkorn. It was topped with an arrangement of white carnations and roses with satin streamers tied in lovers' knots. She wore pearl earrings, the gift of the bridegroom, and observed the familiar traditions.

Mrs. Janet Carroll, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Bonita Brandt, another cousin, and Mrs. JoAnn McCauley, sister of the bridegroom.

They appeared in identical, street - length gowns of pale pink, nylon chiffon over taffeta. Designed with fitted bodices and full skirts, they were worn with feathered half - hats and white gloves, which were gifts of the bride. They carried white spray baskets, decorated with pink streamers, filled with roses and mums accented with fernery.

Richard Malone served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Larry Miller, the bride's brother, and Robert McCauley, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. They received cuff link and tie bar sets.

The mother of the bride chose a fall print of blue and white dacron with white accessories and a corsage of white and blue-tinted rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was attired in blue, nylon lace with white accessories and pink and white rosebud corsage.

A reception for 150 was held in the social rooms. A three-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple and encircled with ivy, centered the buffet table. White mums and pink carnations,

They are 1958 graduates of Wellsville High School. The bride is employed in the office of the Genuine Parts Co. and her husband works for Craven's Parts Service Co.

The rehearsal party was given at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Brandt of Wellsville entertained for the pre-nuptial shower assisted by Mrs. Carroll and Mrs. McCauley.

CHILD SAFETY WEEK

If, by this appeal, only One Accident is averted, we of GOLDEN STAR DAIRY are amply rewarded.
JOHN EIFERD, Pres.

PLEASE DON'T Hurt My Little Girl!

Yesterday, my 7 year old daughter started back to school. She was primped up in a blue dress with white collar, blue gloves and black shoes. "Scoot", her spaniel, sat on the porch and whined, as she waved goodbye.

Last night, we talked about school. About the new girl with yellow curls, about the big girls who didn't believe in Santa Claus, about the teacher with eyes in the back of her head. We talked about many such vital things . . . studied Reading and Spelling . . . then, off to bed.

She's asleep now, with her doll "Princess" cuddled in her arm. As her mother, I'm worried. You see, I can fix things when she cuts her finger or bumps her head. But when she's off to school and crossing streets, she's in YOUR hands. You wouldn't hurt her, would you?

She's sweet, precious . . . and we love her so. Runs like a deer, active as a chipmunk . . . likes to swim and go on hikes with her Daddy. But, we can't be with her all the time.

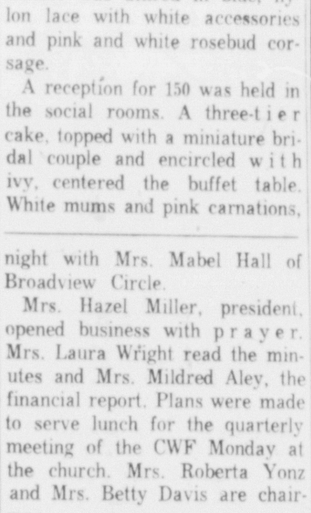

PLEASE help us look out for her. PLEASE Drive Carefully . . . slowly past Schools and at intersections. And PLEASE remember that children do run from behind parked cars.

PLEASE DON'T HURT MY LITTLE GIRL!

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Exercise Reshapes Figure Proportions

Exercise can put life into your reducing program. Toned muscles enhance your vigor and give you more bounce and verve. This is a sedentary age.

Ida Jean Kain

Without planned exercise you will have great difficulty in avoiding fatty accumulation in nature's favorite parking places.

That brings up the question, is exercise reducing in spots? Spot reducing refers to inches . . . and calisthenics can most certainly help you to slim inches off specific measurements. Exercise stimulates circulation, promotes better muscle tone, and stops the sagging.

THE MUSCLES of the abdomen are the most neglected of any group. Fact is, a big stomach is not always a matter of excess fat on this measurement. The size may be caused in large part by lack of tone. Posture, too, is an important factor.

Keep your posture on the slim up-and-down muscle track — maintenance of good posture amounts to exercise.

A common complaint is that exercise makes you so much hungrier. But does it really? Do not confuse better appetite with bigger appetite. Exercise gives you a keener enjoyment of food. Experiments have shown that inactivity does not decrease appetite for the person who has the habit of overeating.

But lack of physical activity certainly does lower your calorie requirements.

The rewards of exercise are so great! By stepping up calorie burning with exercise, you can reduce at a satisfying rate without cutting calories so low as to feel uncomfortably hungry.

If you are a homemaker, you might tune in on an exercise program show on TV. Or you can purchase an exercise record and follow through with stretch, bend, swings.

OR JUST TURN on the music and move to the rhythm. Rhythm gives a lift . . . and makes exercise time fly.

To shift fat away from certain areas, make those specific muscles the target for the action. Exercise can help you to look and be firm and slim.

Join a dance group if you wish. Go bowling. Get out and walk. Swim at the "Y." Take any type of exercise you like best . . but take it. You can keep your summertime zest and vigor.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Can you suggest a cement for broken crockery that will resist both heat and water?

A. White lead is a good one. Apply it thinly to the broken edges of your crockery, press them tightly together, tie into place, and then set aside for two or three days to dry and set.

Q. How can I drive short tacks into hard-to-get-at corners?

A. Force the tack through a strip of paper, and hold the paper in place with your left hand as you drive in the tack with the hammer in your right hand.

Q. How can I remove some paint spatters from window glass?

A. A strong solution of baking soda will usually do a good job of this.

The plunger drove the tread of this fully inflated tire down over half a foot – until it was pressed against the inside of the wheel itself! But the plunger couldn't burst the tire. Not a single tire cord was broken.

This test – with the agonizing 6000-pound stress it places on tires – is just one example of the dramatic, continuing, Goodyear tests to PROVE the safety, strength and value of all Goodyear tires . . . including even the popular-priced 3-T All-Weather shown.

More Issues Entered For Fall's Ballots

Three more special questions and issues have been filed with the Election Board, boosting to 32 the number awaiting a vote by Columbiana County subdivisions at the Nov. 7 general election.

Hanover Township trustees filed a resolution asking a vote on a new one-mill levy for five years for cemetery maintenance.

Two more proposals were certified to the Columbiana County board by the Stark County board —both affecting the Minerva Local School District, which lies in both counties.

The district will vote on a $1,595,000 bond issue to construct and equip a new junior high school and elementary school. A 4.7-mill levy will be required for 20 years to liquidate the issue, the certification said.

The same district will vote on a renewal of a 2.6-mill levy with an increase of four-tenths of a mill to constitute a 3-mill levy for five years for operating expenses.

Meanwhile, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the Election Board, said a five-member committee has the right to name another candidate to fill the ballot vacancy created by the sudden death Saturday of Frank Colella, who was seeking re-election as a member of the New Waterford Board of Trustees of Public Affairs. Mr. Colella was stricken fatally while attending the Mahoning County Fair at Canfield.

The five - member nominating committee which Mr. Collella named on his non-partisan petition has the right to designate a new candidate. It is comprised of Joseph Taylor, Bert Keck, Lois Merriman, Jessie McCune and Esther Bretz.

The committee has until five days prior to the election to fill the vacancy, but the Election Board hopes it will act quickly because the board is holding up printing of the New Waterford ballot, meanwhile, O'Hanlon said.

Meanwhile, the number of precincts in Columbiana County Wednesday rose officially to 165, an increase of 13.

A hearing on establishment of the 13 new precincts was held Aug. 14. However, objections were raised in several instances to the lines set down for new precincts in Salem, Butler Township and Columbiana village.

The Election board made the changes and then provided for another 10-day waiting period for protests, as the law requires. The 10-day period passed Tuesday without any objections being filed, so establishment of the precincts became official.

The board has ordered equipment for all the new precincts in preparation for the November election, O'Hanlon said.

Bricks Removed From W. 3rd St. For Paving Job

Crews of Chapin & Chapin, Inc., one of the contractors on the city freeway project, Wednesday started removal of the old brick paving on W. 3rd St. between Monroe St. and Market St., prelude to installation of a brand new blacktop pavement.

The street will be surfaced with a nine-inch base and five inches of blacktop to provide a connecting link between Route 30 at 3rd and Market Sts. and the end of the four-lane freeway section at W. 3rd and Monroe St. There will be no cost to property - owners as the work is part of the overall freeway project.

A power shovel is scooping up the brick pavement and loading it onto city trucks. The street department will salvage the bricks and use them for gutter paving and other jobs, Supt. W. M. Laughlin said.

The public probably will be allowed to travel W. 3rd after the paving is removed, as was the case when the bricks were taken up earlier on the stretch on the extreme west end of W. 3rd near Monroe St., Laughlin said.

Union Group Attends Youngstown Meeting

Fred Kane, president, and Francis Cubberly represented unionized East Liverpool city employes Tuesday night when Council 18, State, County and Municipal Employes, met at the Tod Hotel in Youngstown.

Cubberly gave the legislative committee's report on proposals that will be presented to the state convention of the group Saturday and Sunday at Columbus. Kane and Cubberly will be delegates.

Ed Dailey, regional AFL - CIO director, also reported on the convention plans. The regional council represents public employes in Columbiana, Trumbull and Mahoning Counties.

Problems Can Crop Up On Home Work

When your child, especially in grades between three and six, must prepare written work for school, check on each paper to make sure that it is reasonably neat and legible and that every word in it is spelled correctly. If it is not reasonably neat, require him to write it again, helping him spell correctly the words he misspelled.

Dr. Garry Meyers

Let's entreat teachers to make assignments shorter and to cooperate with us in furthering neatness and precision by the child, especially in the grades.

—:—

A CONSTANT problem you face when you require your child to do over his written work, or even to do all of it once, is that you may break into his sleeptime, may keep him up too late — a strong argument for short homework assignments by the school.

Often this problem could be prevented by having the child begin his homework, regularly, at an earlier hour.

There might well be one or more PTA programs a year in which these problems could be discussed, from the angles of the home and school.

To encourage the child, say in grades three to 12 or so, to acquire a spelling conscience, by which he tries to make sure he can spell each word before he writes it, you should gladly spell for him any word he asks you to spell. If you merely tell him to look it up in the dictionary, he won't; he will guess at its spelling. The correct spelling of some of the words you won't be sure about yourself; then you should consult the dictionary and encourage him to help you do so.

IF IN THESE ways you foster a companionable relationship with the child, you may be able to cause him to be more ready to look up a word for himself and thus grow in self-reliance.

Certainly, as you check on his written work and find some misspelled words, you should write down for him the correct spelling of each word, if you wish to cultivate in him a better spelling conscience.

My bulletins, "Home Helps in Spelling and Handwriting", may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Election of officers for the juvenile and subordinate granges will be held at the next meeting Sept. 19 at 7:30 p. m.

Much-Abused 'Ain't' To Be In Dictionary

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — The much-abused term "ain't" has been accepted for Webster's third New International Dictionary, to be published Sept. 28.

The new dictionary, Gordon J. Gallan, president of G. & C. Merriam Co., said Wednesday would say "Ain't is used orally in most parts of the U.S. by cultivated speakers."

Pastor Claimed After Clash Of 2 Negro Factions

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—The Rev. A. G. Wright of Detroit, died today of injuries suffered during an outburst of jostling and pushing Wednesday when two factions of the Negro National Baptist Convention, USA, sought control of the rostrum at Municipal Auditorium.

He fell off the stage during the struggle. His head hit the floor. He died at 3 a.m. without regaining consciousness, attendants said. He was about 50 years old.

Delegates to the annual meeting are scheduled to elect officers today under a court-approved plan designed to prevent further violence. About 6,000 delegates are here for the meeting.

Heads of the factions are the Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Jackson of Chicago and the Rev. Dr. Gardner C. Taylor of Brooklyn. Both claim they were elected president at the 1960 convention in Philadelphia.

At a hearing Wednesday in Circuit Court, the leaders agreed that the Rev. Dr. D. A. Holmes of Kansas City should preside over today's election.

The court order enjoined the delegates from "any boisterous, unruly, or other conduct tending to interfere or obstruct the business of the convention."

Police swarmed through the auditorium Wednesday in an effort to restrain the two factions.

Mayor H. Roe Bartle finally quelled the hubbub. He told the delegates: "If you came to Kansas City to raise hell, you should go home."

Because both old - fashioned rice pudding and Indian pudding take to long oven-baking, prepare them at one time. Serve the rice pudding right away and refrigerate the Indian pudding to be served cold or reheated when needed.

Contract Is Awarded For Salem Post Office

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Wednesday announced award of a contract to Ralph A. Durbin, Euclid, Ohio, for construction of a new post office at Salem, Ohio.

The Post Office Department said Durbin submitted the best of five bids received.

The contract calls for construction of the post office on the northwest coroner of Penn and Columbia Streets and then leasing the building to the department for 20 years at an annual rental of $55,800.

The structure will have an interior space of 12,199 square feet. There will be 17,766 square feet of space for driveways and parking of postal vehicles.

Dodgers Slice Reds' Lead To 1 Game

LA Sweeps Set; Cards Belt Cincy

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers have scrapped back to within one game of Cincinnati's stumbling Reds in the National League pennant race.

After blowing a 3-0 lead against San Francisco Wednesday night the Dodgers went to work, coming from behind with a five-run eighth for a 9-5 victory.

Cincinnati lost to St. Louis 11-5.

While the Dodgers swept their four-game series with San Francisco, still hopeful Milwaukee beat Philadelphia 1-0 as Warren Spahn nailed his 306th career victory, most ever in one league by a left-handed pitcher. The Chicago Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 6-2.

The Dodgers got started on the big eighth when Frank Howard, who had singled home two runs in the first, rifled a single that almost knocked down losing reliever Stu Miller (10-4) of the Giants. Willie Davis went in as a pinch runner, stole second and scooted on to third on catcher Ed Bailey's wild peg. Pinch hitter Norm Larker brought him in with a single, tying it 5-all, and John Roseboro followed with a pinch double that gave Los Angeles the lead. An error, a walk, Wally Moon's two-run single and a force out by Snider brought in the other three. Snider also hit a solo home run in the fifth.

Roger Craig (5-6), fourth of six Dodger pitchers, was the winner. He faced just one man after Larry Sherry had to leave in the eighth because of arm trouble. The Giants wiped out the Dodgers' 3-0 lead with home runs by Jim Davenport, Felipe Alou and Orlando Cepeda off starter Sandy Koufax.

St. Louis twice came from behind against the Reds after knocking out their ace right-hander, 19-game winner Joey Jay, with two runs in the first inning. A two-run sixth on two of the Reds' four errors, Stan Musial's sacrifice fly and Ken Boyer's single, put it away and beat reliever Jim Maloney (6-6).

Right - hander Larry Jackson (12-9), a winner in nine of his last 10 decisions, settled down after walking three men on 12 consecutive pitches in a three-run third and held the Reds to one run, a homer by Jerry Lynch, over the last six innings.

Spahn (18-12), closing in on his 12th season of 20 or more victories, beat Eddie Plank's record of 305 victories, all in the AL, by blanking the Phils on three singles. It was Spahnie's 54th career shutout.

The Braves, now six games in back of Cincinnati, had five hits, scoring in the first inning off John Buzhardt (5-16) on a walk, Ed Mathews' single and Hank Aaron's sacrifice fly.

Dragons Set For Shot At State Football Crown Again

The East Liverpool Potters will have two strikes on them before they even line up for the opening kickoff Saturday at 8 p. m. at Riverside Stadium, Niles.

First, East Liverpool, opening the 1961 season, faces an opponent which finished second in the final rankings last year and appears even stronger this season and is given a very good chance of making a run for the state title.

Secondly, the Potters have practiced all week without the benefit of having head coach Bob Hedmond on the scene. Hedmond has been in Follansbee because of the death of his father.

Besides these factors, the Potters are grass green and will face a more experienced foe which will outweigh the Blue and White gridders at every position.

Assistants Rey Peduzzi, Nunzio Polichene and Jack Bair have been working overtime in an effort to have the Blue and White ready for Saturday night's encounter. Hedmond plans to join the team Friday.

COACH TONY Mason of Niles, who is one of the winningest coaches in the business with a career record of 60 wins, 9 defeats and 5 ties, watched his team score two touchdowns against Massillon while holding the Tigers scoreless in a scrimmage session last weekend.

In 1960, when Mason led Niles to a second place spot behind Massillon, his team went undefeated with nine victories. A 13-13 tie with Farrell, Pa., was the only blemish on the record.

Out of the 11 offensive starters Saturday, eight will be lettermen. They are headed by two rugged backs and an end who is rated by college scouts as one of the best linemen in Ohio.

The back who has been singled out to lead the Dragons this season is Rick Sygar, who is billed as 155 pounds of dynamite. He scored both TD's in the scrimmage with Massillon and tallied 86 points during his junior year.

The other veteran back is Marty Coates (170), a two-year letterman at that position, who was one of the big reasons in back of the successful season last year.

COATES has been nursing a shoulder separation and has not had much contact work. If he isn't quite ready, Mason will use Dave Metheny, a 165-pound senior.

The only spot where Mason isn't set is right halfback, but Reggie McGinnis, a 165 - pound senior who lettered last season being used as a spot player, has the inside track at present. Bob Rein, who starred last year as a sophomore, may get the call over McGinnis.

The biggest surprise at Niles this season came at a most vital spot — quarterback. Blossoming into a topnotch passer is Jim Seiber, who weighs 155 pounds and is only a junior.

College scouts have been casting bouquets at end Dennis Flanagan, a 6-2, 210-pound letterman. They were sold on him as a junior and reports say he is even better this season.

At the other end spot will be John Samu (170), a junior who failed to letter in 1960.

THE TACKLES are a couple of 200-pounders in Charlie Kines and Karl Singer. Both are senior lettermen, with Kines hitting 220 on the scales and Singer 210.

The guards will be Sam Davis (190), who did not win a letter last season, and Stan Thompson, a 170-pound letterman.

Mason, who is used to winning streaks after having a 28-game string going at Brookfield where he coached before coming to Niles, shows a record of 18 straight wins at Niles. The last game Niles lost was the 1958 opener to Youngstown Rayen, 15-14.

EL Gridder Injures Ankle In Practice

All but one of the district's high school grid teams will launch their schedules this weekend.

Fourteen games are set, eight on Friday night and six more on Saturday afternoon and evening.

The only team in the district not opening this weekend is Columbiana, which will launch its season Sept. 14 at home with McDonald.

East Liverpool, which has always opened on Friday night, will mark time until Saturday. The Potters travel to Niles to take on a team that appears to have the material to go all the way to a state championship.

Three local schools share the headline Friday night in big openers. Freedom will test Wellsville's strength at Nicholson Stadium, where Coach Ken Woods will unleash Roger Ours & Co.

The lights will be turned on at Beaver Local for the first night football game at that school and a strong Leetonia eleven will serve as the opposition. Game time is 8.

Ellwood City invades Midland, where Charlie Polce is beginning his second year as head coach and has his hopes high for a winning season following an unsuccessful campaign in 1960.

Coach Rey Dempsey will make his debut at East Palestine Friday night when the Bulldogs entertain Canfield in a non - league contest.

Another area coach making his first appearance is Don McBride, who took over the head coaching job at Stanton Local. McBride sends the Irondale eleven against Hopedale, the school where he coached last season. The Stanton-Hopedale battle is set for the Irondale field.

East Liverpool nd Niles feature Saturday's action, while Chester and United are billed in an afternoon game beginning at 2 at Hanoverton.

Pete Horoszko takes his Newell Vikings to Follansbee for a clash with St. Anthony Saturday night.

'Have Hit More On Road'

Maris Offended By Claim That Stadium Is Paradise

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris, a man of definite opinion, took issue today with those who claim that Yankee Stadium, a paradise for left-handed hitters, has been helpful in his bid to break Babe Ruth's record.

"I agree that this park has got to help a left-handed hitter like myself," he conceded. "But I still think I'd have hit just as many, or nearly as many, if I were still playing with Kansas City.

"Check my home runs and you'll find that I have hit more home runs on the road than at home. I don't know how many I hit in other parks this year but I know last year I hit 26 or 27 of my 39 on the road."

The records bear that out. Roger slammed No. 54 of the season at Yankee Stadium Wednesday as Whitey Ford won his 23rd with a five-hit 8-0 decision over Washington. The victory increased the New York Yankees' first place lead over Detroit to eight games.

Maris's homer, putting him seven games ahead of Ruth's pace when the Babe slammed 60 in 1927, was Rog's 26th at Yankee Stadium. The other 28 have been hit in foreign fields. Mickey Mantle, who walked twice but failed to hit any out of the park, has hit 29 of his 51 in enemy territory.

Maris' homer No. 54 was caught by teammate Bob Hale in the Yankee bullpen. The reserve first baseman presented it to Roger for his collection.

"I began saving them after I reached the 40's," Maris explained. "Every homer I hit after 40 I kept thinking might be my last one so I figured I might as well save them."

Maris writes the date and number on each home run ball that is returned to him. He didn't know how many he had because he gave some of them away to friends.

"No more," he said. "From now on, I'm going to keep every one of them."

He conceded they might be harder to come by from now because "those pitchers are changing up on me a lot more now. I'm not getting many pitches over the plate. They're either outside or inside. I really don't expect any down the pipe. When one comes, I'm surprised."

Iowa, Ohio State Picked On Top In Big Ten Race

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Iowa and Ohio State shape up as the strongest claimants to the Big Ten football title this season.

Michigan State, which doesn't play either of the co-favorites, is considered the most dangerous threat. Wisconsin and Michigan could be the major surprises.

Jerry Burns, who takes over for Forest Evashevski as Iowa coach, inherits 20 lettermen, including eight starters. Agility in the line will be supported by one of the country's fastest backfields — quarterback Wilburn Hollis, Larry Ferguson, Joe Williams and Sammie Harris.

Michigan State has 26 letterwinners, including 17 seniors. Power-running veteran backs include Ron Hatcher, George Saimes, Carl Charon and Gary Ballman.

Michigan can field an all letterman team. Behind Dave Glinka at quarterback are Bob Chandler and Frosty Evashevski, son of Iowas athletic director. Ends Scott Maentz and George Mans are fine pass catchers.

Maris Swats No. 54, Stays 7 Ahead Of Babe's Pace

Ford Beats Nats, 8-0, To Post 23rd Victory

Six more. Two every five games. That's all it will take now for Roger Maris to hit 60 home runs and tie Babe Ruth's long elusive record.

After belting No. 54, for his first hit in 17 at bats, as the New York Yankees clobbered Washington 8-0 Wednesday, Maris is seven games ahead of Ruth's record pace of 1927.

Mickey Mantle, who has paired with Maris for half of the Yankees' AL record setting 210 homers this season, was 0-for-2, walking twice Wednesday and now is one game and one home run behind Ruth's pace. Mantle has hit 51.

Pushed to the background as Maris' 54th set off an awesome display of five Yankee home runs Wednesday was the fact that Whitey Ford became the first lefthander to win 23 games in the AL since 1952 and that New York powered eight games ahead of idle Detroit.

The Chicago White Sox beat Minnesota twice, 6-3 and 4-2 in 10 innings, and Boston clipped Cleveland 9-4 in the only other AL games scheduled.

Maris' solo home run, his ninth against Washington, broke up a scoreless duel between Ford (23-3) and Tom Cheney (1-3) and got the Yankees started on a five-run fourth inning after two were out. John Blanchard belted two. Bill Skowron and Bob Hale hit the other home runs.

Ford allowed five hits and struck out seven. The win reduced the Yanks' magic number to 16—any combination of New York victories or Detroit defeats totaling 16 clinches the flag.

The White Sox banged 13 hits, one a homer by Nellie Fox, and beat Pete Ramos (10-17) as Juan Pizarro (13-5) won his seventh in a row in the first game at Minnesota, a replay of Tuesday's 3-3 tie. Two unearned runs in the 10th won the second game for the Sox and Don Larsen (7-1). Camilo Pascual (12-15) was the loser.

Rookie Carl Yastrzemski drove in four runs, three with a homer, for Boston. Rookie Don Schwall (14-4) kept the Indians in check although allowing 11 hits. Jim Perry (9-13) lost it.

Liston Will Face Trial Sept. 28

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Heavyweight boxer Charles (Sonny) Liston faces trial Sept. 28 on charges of turning off his car lights to avoid arrest after an incident in Fairmount Park.

Joseph Scanlon, commissioner of jury trials set the trial date Wednesday after Liston pleaded innocent.

Awaits Opener Saturday

15 Lettermen Give United Something To Look Forward To In 1961 Season

HANOVERTON — Coming up with one of the largest groups of lettermen around the district is Ray Russell at United as he rounds his Golden Eagles into shape for their opener Saturday with Chester.

Three senior backs lead the way among the lettermen. John Hanna, who developed fast last season as a junior, returns to his quarterback post where he showed up well as a passer and runner. Hanna, who is also a standout on the basketball court, goes 160 pounds.

Joining him in the backfield is veteran Larry Marks (190) who was a mainstay as a junior last season. Russell has Marks listed for fullback duty.

The other back is Dick Strong, a 155-pounder who is battling for a halfback spot with junior lettermen Bill Schroyer, a 180-pounder, and Gary Blythe (150). Backing Hanna up at quarterback is junior letter-winner Gary Milliken at 150.

Russell has a host of experienced linemen. Going across the forward wall is Ronnie Hawkins (160), who will be used at either end or tackle. The United coach shows two ends who saw plenty of action during the 1960 campaign in Jim Sturgeon (150) and Kenny Metzgar (140), a speedster.

Rated one of the top tackles in the county is Pete Schweigert, a two-year veteran and the biggest man on the squad at 210. His running mate at tackle is another letterman John Marks at 185.

Two senior guards who won letters last year are among those battling for the posts again. They are Don Smallwood (130) and Glenn Willis (180). John Blanchard, a 165-pound junior, also is in the thick of things.

A squad of 40 boys has been working out, with 14 seniors, six juniors, eight sophomores and 12 freshmen.

Assisting Russell this season is Larry Joseph, who also serves as head basketball coach, and Mel Klingler, a Youngstown University graduate starting his second year at United.

Chester will visit United Saturday afternoon for the 1961 opener beginning at 2.

More Than 25,000 Gridders

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

More than 25,000 youngsters are on the 671 scholastic squads, many of which open pigskin warfare this weekend. Practice started Aug. 18, and Friday is the earliest date for a regular game or preview.

Many of the teams will zoom through 10 or 11-game schedules before the state championship is decided in The Associated Press poll of sports writers in late November. Others play as few as eight contests.

Massillon won the state title a year ago—but there could be a big chance this time despite the fact the usually terrific Tigers are touted as being "loaded" with talent.

Last Saturday Coach Leo Strang's Stark Countians staged a practice scrimmage against 1960 runner-up Niles McKinley and reports from the battle scene were that the Red Dragons outclassed the Tigers 12-0, piled up a 17-6 edge in first downs, and outgained Massillon 217 yards to 126.

Toledo Macomber was drubbed 24-0 by both Massillon and Niles in the round-robin affair staged before 5,000 fans.

The first look at the top-notchers against regular-season foes comes this weekend as East Liverpool's Potters meet Niles on the latter's gridiron Saturday, and Massillon entertains Newark — a brand new foe—Friday night.

Springfield South's Wildcats, nearly always among the Top Ten in the weekly Associated Press ratings, will be idle this week. But Hamilton Garfield, rated the favorite over Springfield in the Greater Ohio League race, opens against Fairfield Friday. Coach Lou Florio's Hamilton team, with an 8-3 record last year, has a host of returning lettermen.

Glenn (Tiger) Ellison, who has a 107-43-8 record for 15 seasons at Middletown, sends his Middies against Zanesville Friday in another big one. Portsmouth's Trojans, with the Class AA basketball title tucked away, go against Charleston, W.Va., with only six seniors on the squad as Howard Baughman faces a rebuilding year.

Until a few games have been played the championship picture will be a bit hazy. But one thing is certain in the early season contests—a host of new names will flash across the scholastic screen, turning expected setups into upsets.

With ancient rivals to overcome, and with the state championship and All-Ohio berths waiting at the end of the trail, there's plenty of incentive for the kids to give the campaign their all.

Last year's Top Ten in the AP ratings, in order, were Massillon, Niles, Alliance, Sandusky, Dayton Colonel White, Cincinnati Purcell, Marion Harding, Toledo Central, Troy and Port Clinton.

Only two of those had made the 1959 Top Ten—so look for a lot of new faces again in 1961.

Laver Takes Court Today In Nationals

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Rod Laver, almost everyone's choice to win the title, gets his first stern test in the National Tennis Championships today when he faces big Chris Crawford of Piedmont, Calif.

Crawford, 22, is one of the few folks who thinks Laver won't win the crown.

"I think I have a chance against him," said the Corpus Christi, Tex., university student. "We've played only once before and that was in Perth, Australia, last year. He won in four sets, but it was close. The last set, in fact, was 14-12."

Meanwhile, the three seeded players who saw action Wednesday sailed into the quarter-final round. Roy Emerson, Laver's Aussie pal, downed Harry Hoffman Jr. of Philadelphia, 6-1, 12, 6-2. Jon Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., whipped Crawford Henry of Atlanta 3-6, 6-3, 7-5, 8-6 and Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn, No. 8 halted Jack Forst of Monterrey, Calif., 6-2, 7-9, 6-4, 6-1.

In the women's division, things were black indeed, for the United States contingent. Top-seeded Darlene Hard is the only American girl to make the quarter-finals.

The other seven are Yola Ramirez of Mexico, who plays Miss Hard today; Angela Mortimer, Christine Truman and Ann Haydon, all of Britain, and Margaret Smith and Lesley Turner of Australia.

Bucks' Halfbacks To Carry Ball More

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State football fans undoubtedly will be treated to a play this year that was almost extinct last season—a halfback carrying the ball.

Buckeye halfbacks got their hands on the ball only about six times per game last year, but Coach Woody Hayes is grooming a couple of all-state sophomores for the jobs this season.

Fleet-footed Paul Warfield of Warren has practically clinched the left halfback spot and Matt Snell, Locust Valley, N.Y., speedster, is looming very big for the right half post. Snell, a 6-foot-2, 212-pounder, also is likely to play

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching — Warren Spahn, Braves, beat Phils 1-0 with three-hitter, walking just one and striking out six, for ninth straight complete game victory and 306th career victory, a major league record by a left-hander in one league.

Hitting — Ken Boyer, Cards, went 3-for-4 and broke 5-5 tie with sixth-inning single in 11-5 victory over first place Reds.

Youngstown Mayor Given New Warning

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Common Pleas Judge Frank J. Battisti has warned Mayor Frank R. Franko that he will have him jailed if he makes any more derogatory comments about the judge.

The judge's ire was aroused by a radio statement Mayor Franko made Tuesday night after the judge found him in contempt of court and fined him $500 and costs. The judge had sentenced Franko to jail for 10 days, in addition to the fine, but suspended the jail term.

In a note to City Law Director S. S. Fekett Wednesday, Judge Battisti said if there are any more such comments from the mayor he will make Franko serve out his 10-day sentence.

The mayor, in his radio statement, had referred in a derisive manner to the way the judge read his decision.

The reason for the contempt citation was an alleged threat by the mayor to bring charges of prejudice against Judge Battisti unless the judge granted a continuation in a case involving former Civil Service Commission Chairman Paul J. Fleming. Fleming was appealing his firing by the mayor.

Jaycees' Board Receives Reports

Reports on the activities of various committees were heard by the Junior Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors at a meeting Tuesday night at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Frank Potts, chairman, reported on the semi-pro football game sponsored Saturday night at Patterson Field. Frank Dawson, chairman, gave the final report on the youth fitness program and suggested a bid be made to hold the state finals at East Liverpool next year.

William Webber, president, reported on the state building fund for a new headquarters at Marion. A committee was named to form a convention club.

William W. Jackson, 520 5th St., Chester, was accepted as a new member.

The general membership meeting will be Sept. 18 at the Travelers Hotel. An Ohio Bell Telephone Co. official will be guest speaker. The fall all-state meeting will be Sept. 30-Oct. 1 at Columbus.

Mount Union Receives $671,958 In Gifts

ALLIANCE, Ohio — Mount Union College received $671,958 in total gifts for the fiscal year ended June 30 — about $13,000 less than the record $685,329 in 1959-60 according to President Carl C. Bracy.

Included in the amounts given this year were $349,522 for buildings, $173,846 for current operations, $145,990 for endowment and $2,600 for student loans.

Dr. Bracy indicated $352,246 was contributed by alumni and friends, while corporations gave $281,712 and the conferences and boards of the Methodist Church $101,000.

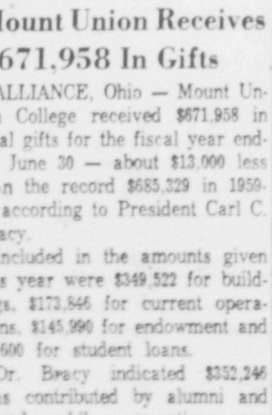

Weirton Man Named Congressman's Aide

Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey of the 1st W. Va. Congressional District today announced the appointment of Louis Serra of Weirton to his congressional staff.

A former radio news director, Serra resigned to accept the appointment which the veteran congressman said was made "to enable me to get closer to the problem of the people in the counties which the State Legislature has added to my district."

Truck Drivers End 2-Hour Wildcat Strike

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — About 35 truck drivers reportedly agreed to go back to work today following a two-hour wildcat strike Wednesday to protest load restrictions in Fairport Harbor.

The drivers, members of the Teamsters Union Excavating and Building Material Drivers Local 436 in Cleveland, said the three-year-old ordinance is cutting into their paychecks, which are determined on a tonnage and mileage basis. The men are hauling sand and gravel from the Fairport docks to construction sites along the Lakeland Expressway and North-South Freeway in Lake County.

Groundbreaking Set For Freeway Project

ZELIENOPLE, Pa. (AP) — A groundbreaking ceremony will be held Friday for a three-mile bypass around this Butler County community marking the first actual construction on the Erie-Pittsburgh Freeway.

Tammany's Power Faces Critical Test

NEW YORK (AP)—The future of Tammany Hall as the top political force in the nation's largest city is at stake in a Democratic mayoral primary election today. The campaign has been bitter.

The opponents:

Mayor Robert F. Wagner, who has split with the organization and is running for renomination for a third four-year term with the backing of insurgents on an "anti-bossism" platform.

State Comptroller Arthur Levitt, backed by Tammany, the Manhattan organization, and organization leaders in other boroughs. Their theme is that the insurgents are out to "rule or ruin" the party.

Clear, cooler weather is forecast for the polling hours, 3 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Pushing the insurgent drive are former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt although they are not seeking office themselves.

Republicans are hopeful that the Democratic split will enable State Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, their unopposed mayoral nominee, to capture City Hall in the Nov. 7 general election.

Such a triumph would be the first for a Republican on a strictly GOP ticket in a century and would give a shot in the arm to Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's state organization.

Newell Legion Gives $25 To Child Center

Loss Of $877 Reported For Looting Case

Police pushed a search today for intruders who escaped with merchandise valued at $877 in a burglary discovered Wednesday at the Jewel Tea Co. warehouse on Myrtle St., East End.

Three air conditioners valued at $200 each comprised the bulk of the loot from the standpoint of value, police reported.

The intruders also escaped with six transistor radios valued at $29.95 each, a portable cooler worth $49.95, two pillows worth a total of $10.95, six crib mattresses valued at $3.95 each, a clothes hamper worth $5.95, two aluminum "chicken fryer" pans worth $10.88 each and a four-piece set of cookingware worth $24.95.

Entry was gained by removing a lock on a door, officers said. The burglary was timed between 6 p. m. Tuesday and 9:17 a. m. Wednesday.

The entry first was reported to Patrolman Charles A. Winters, desk officer at headquarters. Patrolman Floyd K. Heddleston investigated.

To reheat rolls, place them in a heavy pan, cover tightly, and put them in a hot oven for about 10 minutes.

Industry Sets Traffic Plan

A general traffic ordinance is being prepared by Industry Borough Council, it was reported after a meeting Wednesday evening in the Borough Building.

The ordinance will include regulations on load limits, parking and stop signs. It is being prepared by Atty. Charles Barrickman, solicitor, in conjunction with Council's legislative committee.

Council passed an ordinance vacating the lower portion of Russell Hill Rd. The borough decided the section of road was too much to maintain.

Mayor Harry H. Davis asked all Council members to meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. to discuss the borough's Civil Defense with Francis Crytzer Jr., director.

Councilman Allen Craft, chairman of the fire and police committee, reported the fire truck is being repaired and should be back in operation this weekend.

Calvin Dunlap, president, presided. Next meeting will be announced.

Crews Mopping Up After Severe Storm

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — Work crews today continued to mop up the mess left by a severe storm Wednesday night 10 miles south of here. The storm felled trees along Ohio 301, blocking one-half mile of highway near LaGrange. Telephone and electrical service were interrupted for a short time. No injuries were reported.

The Ohio Highway Patrol described the downpour, powered by strong winds, as a small tornado, but the U.S. Weather Bureau could not confirm it.

Boy Wounds Father In Fight Over Tire

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A 14-year-old boy shot his father in the head with a shotgun Wednesday night following an argument over purchase of a tire for the youth's bicycle, the Portage County sheriff's department reported.

Norman Gillespie, 38, of nearby Deerfield, was admitted in fair condition to a Ravenna hospital. Deputies declined to name the boy being held by authorities of Juvenile Court.

PUZZLED

We, frankly, are puzzled at the fact that we didn't sell this fine three bedroom red brick home within a few days and we are seriously interested in finding out why.
The first unusual factor is that very few people have looked at it, although the price is very fair. The ones who have seen it have said it is a wonderful buy, and three of them would have taken it if they could have arranged financing.
The only reason that we can attribute our luck to is that maybe our price is so low that folks don't realize how much we actually are offering for their dollar in this case.
It is well-located on a nice level lot in a good community, is only 7 years old and the price is only $14,500

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm getting fed up with the letters you've been printing from wives who are suspicious of their husbands' secretaries. I'll wager 80 per cent of the wives who write are in the change of life and off their rockers. If they knew what most secretaries thought of their bosses they wouldn't be so concerned.

I've been a secretary for more than 20 years. I've worked in four different offices and have become acquainted with dozens of secretaries. I don't know of one who has ever set her cap for her boss. Nor have I known of a single case where the boss made a pass.

An office is the most unromantic place in the world. Will you please spike this ridiculous cancard for all time?—HELEN.

Dear Helen: Marriages may be made in heaven but a good many of the earthly contacts are made right down here in offices—unromantic places that they are.

Repentant Bride

Dear Ann: I married last year when I was 19 and my husband was 20. I quit college because I became pregnant but he still has two years before graduation.

Two months ago we had a big argument over nothing important. I phoned my mother. She said to get on a plane and fly home—that it would teach him a lesson. I went home bag and baggage and my baby was born three weeks later.

My father is well off financially. I have a nurse for the baby and everything I want—except my husband. I miss him terribly but my folks won't let me call him. They say he should call me. I have an idea that he may have tried but they wouldn't let me know about it.

Now they are urging me to divorce but I'm so mixed up I don't know what to do. My folks love the baby and say I will always have a wonderful home with them. Please give me some help. —BLUE MOON.

Dear Blue: Get on the next vehicle that's moving in the right direction and go back to your husband. Your baby needs a father more than you need a fur-lined existence with your parents.

And the next time you get into an argument with your husband stay off the horn and settle it with him. There would be fewer wrecked lives and emotionally disturbed children if kids didn't have the paneled doors of parental homes ready to swing open for them.

Yakkety 'Yuk'

Dear Ann: I have been going with "Yuk" (his nickname) for six months. He has lots of faults but I was crazy about him and decided since I wasn't perfect I shouldn't be so fussy. He had a bad habit of breaking dates at the last minute or not showing up at all.

My mother got furious over this but his excuses were so sensible I never felt it was a slam against me.

Last night "Yuk" came over to tell me he wanted to break up. When I began to cry he offered me his brother as a substitute. He says his brother has always liked me and he's more my type.

Well, Ann, I don't want his brother. I want him. What can I do?—DAMP PILLOW.

Dear Damp: I can't gift-wrap the "Yuk" and give him to you. And even if I could, why would you want him, knowing that he doesn't want you?

Tell him good riddance and not to concern himself with a winter replacement. A little dignity can go a long way.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Young Housewife Uses Empty Gun To Hold Burglar

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —A pregnant young housewife surprised a Negro burglar in her home, chased him out onto a busy street and held him at bay with an empty pistol until police arrived.

Sandra Cutts, 19, said she arrived home with her one-year-old daughter Wednesday after having lunch with a sister. She found the burglar, identified as Arthur J. Newton Jr., 15, in her kitchen.

She put her baby down, grabbed the pistol and chased Newton out of the back door, down an alley and out onto the street.

"I got so mad I didn't have time to get scared," she said. "It's a good thing he stopped, or else I don't know what I would have done. I didn't even have any bullets for the gun."

Police said they found two watches, a ring and several other items belonging to the Cutts stuffed in Newton's shirt. He was held by juvenile authorities.

3 Receive Probation In Burglary Of Home

LISBON — Three defendants in the burglary of the home of Lawrence Wolfgange on lower Elkton Rd. Feb. 25 received probation Wednesday afternoon before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzrd.

Mary F. Walker, 20, of New Springfield R. D. 1, and Marshall E. Patracci, 24, and Charles W. Cooper, 22, both of Youngstown, were placed on five years probation.

Both men pleaded guilty after they were apprehended by Youngstown police but Miss Walker was found guilty in a jury trial May 11 then requested probation.

They must make restitution for damages to the Wolfgange home and be of good behavior and report to Chief Probation Officer Richard Rose, the court stipulated.

Burglaries Force Closing Of Church

CHICAGO (AP) — A Roman Catholic church has been forced to close its doors, except during hours of services, because of a wave of burglaries.

The Rev. John Cunningham, assistant pastor of St. Thomas the Apostle Church, said Wednesday the doors were being locked at the suggestion of police who said they were unable to protect the church throughout the day and evening.

Three times within the last two weeks the church alms box and votive light offering boxes have been broken into.

Wife Killed, Husband Hurt As Car Hits Pole

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. May Rose, 65, of Carlton, Mich., was injured fatally and her husband, Fred, 56, was seriously injured when their car hit an aluminum utility pole on the Detroit-Toledo Expressway near Manhattan Boulevard, police reported early today.

The couple were on their way to visit their daughter, Mrs. Margaret Dickens of suburban Oregon.

Irondale Driver Draws $50 Fine

Edward G. Tice, 26, of Irondale R. D. 1 was fined a total of $50 and costs and given a suspended six-month County Jail term Wednesday in Municipal Court when he pleaded guilty to driving a car without an operator's license and using illegal registration.

Tice, cited at 5:54 yesterday morning on Market St. by Patrolman R. B. Pyle, told Acting Judge Paul Tobin the State Highway Patrol told him he cannot qualify for a driver's license because he can neither read nor write. He admitted using plates from a 1952 Chevrolet on a 1953 Dodge which he purchased Aug. 10.

The court advised Tice he will serve the suspended jail sentence if he ever is nabbed again for driving without a license. Tice said he has been driving "four or five months" without an operator's permit, although he knew it was illegal.
